Tigerettes undefeated in 9 games

Sue Lane scores 7th in 3 games; nip Acadia 1-0

By JENNIFER DIXON
The largest crowd to witness a field hockey game this season offset damp conditions as the Dalhousie Tigerettes shutout Acadia 1-0 in a game played Saturday at Studley Campus.

Notwithstanding a slippery field an excellent game was played by both teams. Acadia threatened until the final whistle. It was the strong combination of sharp-shooter Sue Lane and the fine defensive play of goalie Freydis Hurley once again, which brought the girls one game away from the league championship. Miss Lane scored the only goal, her seventh in 3 games, and the defense continued a solid season of seven shutouts, with Miss Hurley and Margie Muir the standouts.

Dalhousie is at the top of the Intercollegiate Field Hockey League with seven wins and two ties in nine games. UNB trails by two and Acadia by three points. Thursday night's game against UNB decides the champion. Whatever the outcome, was, the field hockey team has been a shining light for Dalhousie this fall and congratulations go out to them from the staff and student body.

May travel to Italy

OTTAWA (CUP) — The Canadian Union of Students is planning to send a hockey team to Italy this winter, if they can get the money.

The Canadian Intercollegiate Athletic Association thinks CUS is "jumping the gun."

CUS has been invited by the international student sport federation, FISU, to send a team to the 1966 Winter Universiade in Turin, Italy Feb. 5 - 13.

FISU is so eager to have a Canadian hockey team that they have agreed to pay all its expenses in Italy. CUS has undertaken to get a government grant to pay half the travel fare, with the other half to be obtained locally.

The team will be chosen in November by a national selection committee now being set up by CUS.

CIAU Secretary W.J. McLeod, protesting all the while that the CIAU wants to co-operate with CUS, says "any government grants would only come as a result of a request by the CIAU." The government may say otherwise.

According to Roger Dion, director of the federal government's Fitness and Amateur Sport Directorate, its advisory council is still debating whether to extend recognition to CUS.

The international body has already done so; CUS is now the recognized member of FISU for Canada.

In any case, a missed deadline will force CUS to bypass the advisory council, whose channels of procedure take 2 months to wind through various government organs.

CUS will go directly to the minister of Health and Welfare, according to Paul Ladouceur, CUS international affairs secretary who doubles as "sports director." Funds to send a team to the August student games in Budapest were also obtained by ministerial discretion.

Exhibition plans for Varsity hockey

By JAMIE RICHARDSON
Sid Smith, Gus Mortson, Harry Watson, Danny Lewicki, brothers Brian and Barry Cullen head a cast of former N.H.L. players that will provide the first opposition for the Dalhousie Tigers Varsity hockey squad this season, on Nov. 6.

For Tigers sophomore Coach Dennis Selder this will be a chance not only to see what he has for the coming season, but also to give his charges an opportunity to face and learn from the years of solid hockey experience represented by the ex-big leaguers.

Also lining up for the old-timers are Wally Stanowski, Ron Hurst, Jack Hamilton, Murray (Buzz) Ezzard, and coach Hank Goldup.

The contest, which will be played under international rules, should be an excellent prep match for the Tigers who face the Eastern version of the United States Olympic team in a pair of contests the following weekend. These will be held at the new Truro Arena and the Dal rink.

Game time for the old-timer game is slated for 7:30. Admission will be $1.50 for adults and $1.00 for students with proper identification. Tickets may be purchased at the rink ticket office.

The football future?

Alumni should help promote team

St. Mary's beats Dal again but score shows team improvement. (Dal Photo)

The question is, what next, now that, for all practical purposes football is over. Here is what we have had — a team not at all well balanced, hardly able to dabble any ink into scorebooks while other teams just walk in and score 34 points in one game.

Is there any reason for sitting back until next year when the football players start arriving, to see what you have and what you will need? Why can't Dal put a good team together? Surely we have enough alumni interested in helping the university, to go out and recruit top-calibre players — those who can play football well, and still succeed at school. Some people say this would be impossible, not at all likely, but if we had enough people looking, Dal could obtain players needed to form a team that would be able to compete effectively in the Bluenose Conference.

The time of moral victories is past and in the future, they will be considered valueless, because of the final awakening to the fact that although they are better than nothing, they produce no championships. In seasons to come, the team must shape up, to become at least a threat in the league.

For what can one say about a 34-0 loss without adding to it a lot of banalities such as "Gee, like we played a great game man, too bad we lost."

Some credit in the St. Mary's game must go to the fans who did show up and to the players who never really gave up, even though one might think differently from the score. St. Mary's defense intercepted three Quackenbush passes picked up one fumble, and blocked one Dal punt. It is sufficient to say that the SMU offense piled up the 34 points.

Dal's best once again were; Dave Blanchard, who blocked an SMU punt, which might have set up a touchdown except for a later fumble on the Huskie's ten-yard line, Paul Souza who carried 12 times for 52 yards and Bill Stanish with 31 yards in 10 attempts.

A special salute to the Tiger cheerleaders, who have been a credit to Dalhousie and an inspiration to the fans. To Sue Gordon; MSVC, who scored the red team's intermission touchdown at the game.

Rookie-filled roster makes hoop debut, Nov. 20

By BOB TUCKER
The 1965 edition of the Dalhousie Tiger basketball team has the potential to go all the way, according to coach A. Yarr.

A team composed mainly of rookies last year came out only second best to the strong Acadia five in the Bluenose Intercollegiate Conference, and with the year of experience, a few new faces, and more than a month of training already under their shorts, the Tigers promise to be strong contenders for the title.

November 20 marks the date of the first exhibition contest, against the Alumni in the Dal gym. The following day, Sunday November 21, the Northern Oilers will be the opposition in an afternoon match. The Oilers are a Montreal team with their top man Warren Sutton, ex-Acadia star and draftee of the NBA. Stu Aberdeen's annual tournament at Acadia follows on the third and fourth of December. Ricker College (Maine) Acadia, Dalhousie and a fourth team not yet named, will participate. The Bluenose Classic will be played locally on the seventh and eighth of January, with MIT and Acadia being two of the opponents. The regular season does not begin until mid-January when St. Dunstons hosts the Tigers.

Mr. Yarr expects that Acadia, St. Mary's and St. Francis will provide the keenest opposition, while UNB appears to be the most improved.

Back at home, there are six returning players, one J.V. boy back from last year, and five new faces in camp.

Returnees are Larry Archibald, George Hughes, Dave MacDonald (after a one-year layoff), Tom Beattie, Eric Durnford, and from two years ago, Alex Shaw. Carl Thomas is the Junior Varsity hopeful, Garry White, Bruce Reynolds, Irv Cohen, Kevin White, and Dennis Taylor are the new faces, all freshmen but Taylor who transferred from Prince of Wales.

So far the team has been looking sharp in practise. Speed and defense, paradoxically, have been stressed, and the team is fast. In addition, the team has valuable height with five players towering above the 6'3" mark, including two at 6'6". The only apparent weakness of the team lies in their relatively light weight. Coach Yarr feels that if this can be overcome and as a consequence, they hold their own on the boards, the team should not lose. It is too soon and memories are long enough to discourage over-optimism but odds are the Bluenose league is going to be a thrilling one this year, with Dal near the top.

Mount Royal takes Dal, 33-3 and Cup

By LARRY HONEY

Emblematic of Eastern Canadian rugby supremacy since it was first presented in 1912, the MacTier Cup was coveted for forty years and then disbanded. In 1963 MacTier play was resumed as an annual event. Evidence of this recent upswing in the game's popularity was noticed during a game played last Saturday between the Town of Mount Royal, from La Belle Province and the Dalhousie Rugby Team. A partisan crowd witnessed the more experienced Quebec team overpower their spirited home team by a 33-3 count.

TMR competes in a strong league and is comprised of a number of players from the United Kingdom. However, they were of the general consensus that Dalhousie's is one of the best primarily Canadian teams they have faced and would compare favorably to McGill.

This particular Dal team had operated as such for only one game while their opponents have been functioning for at least a season. They have scored 165 points while allowing only 3 tries against.

The top point-getters in Saturday's game were Simpson, and Hayter with 9 points each. Dan Miller put Dal on the scoreboard in the second half when his 30 yard drop split the uprights.
