

Sir John Johnson presents his Respects to Major Bowler, he forgot to mention to him when he last had the pleasure of seeing him that he had, at the Request of the Deputy Storekeeper General sent the Estimate to his office, with a promise that it should be produced at Head Quarters, on Writing to Mr. Mure on the subject the enclosed answer was received which with the Original Estimate from Mr. Robertson, Sir John hopes will render another unnecessary.
