Dec. 29, 1911.

Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King,

My dear Rex:

I am in receipt of your letter of December 26, 1911.

Many thanks for your congratulations on the birth of my second child, who, I am delighted to say, contrary to the information which you received, is a boy and not a girl. Young Robert Livingston, Jr. is doing very well, and is a fine big nine pounder.

Please forgive this typewritten letter, but I have been very busy for the last three weeks and shall be so until after the holidays.

In regard to the private and personal matter about which you wrote me, I shall have to obtain some information before I can give you a definite answer, but you may expect to hear
