January 28 9

Mr. M. Goor,
Consul General of Belgium,
Laurier Avenue,
Ottawa, Canada.

Dear Mr. Goor:

Your letter of January 20 has reached me here.

If you will permit me to do so, I should like very much to have the pleasure of presenting you with a copy of my book. I regret I have not at hand a copy in which I can write; but I am sending a line to the publishers to ask that a copy be forwarded to you at once; and when I get back to Ottawa, perhaps you will let me write in it there.

It is extremely kind of you to express the interest you do in the book, and I only hope that, when you attempt a reading of it, you may not regret having brought this obligation upon yourself.

With kindest regards to Mrs. Goor and yourself,
Believe me,

Yours very sincerely,
