it. Long may you live in proper person, and afterwards in men's memories, with the great chiefs of Liberalism.

With kind regards,
Yours faithfully,
Wm. Smith

My dear King, May I introduce to you an old friend, W. W. C.
Milner of Halifax, who wishes to see you on a matter which he hopes may interest you? W. W. C. Milner is our representative in the Maritime Provinces, and very well posted in public affairs.

I shall take the opportunity of expressing to you my very hearty congratulations for having gained so early an object worthy of any Canadian's ambition. It is an immense satisfaction to me to see that the mantle which I have always held in peculiar honour, has fallen
