To the Employees of The Colorado Fuel & Iron Company:

At _____

The employes of The Colorado Fuel & Iron Company employed at _____ are hereby invited to assemble in Mass Meeting on the _____ of _____ at the hour of _____ at _____, for the purpose of selecting by ballot one or more of their number to represent them at a Joint Meeting of ^{representatives of the employes} themselves and representatives of the Company, to be held in Pueblo, for the purpose of discussing matters of mutual concern and of considering means of more effective co-operation in maintaining fair and friendly relations.

The management is pleased to announce that, following a precedent initiated a year ago with respect to the coal camps and which has proven mutually advantageous to the Company and its employes, there, the President has appointed for the Minnequa Works and the Quarries an officer to be known as the President's Industrial Representative, who shall act as an intermediary between the Company and its employes at the works and the quarries, in matters pertaining to their welfare. To this position Mr. _____ has been promoted from among the ranks of the employes at the Minnequa Works. The confidence and respect which Mr. _____, through years of faithful service in the works, has inspired in his fellow workmen and the management, is the best guarantee that the duties which he may be called upon to discharge will be performed with the sympathy, understanding and integrity so essential in one called upon to act in the capacity outlined.
