

~~the fact~~, the Faculty, and especially Mrs Rolfs, the Lady Principal and Mr.
 Cochrane for the ~~splendid~~ ~~time~~ lovely reception they had given the students. He was loudly cheered on ~~concluding~~ his conclusion.
 In the evening we appeared before a crowded house which were most hearty in the reception of the various numbers presented. After the programme some had the good fortune of escorting to the college the young ladies who had been so kind to us in the afternoon. It was a model line we walked in pairs, with the lady Principal ~~bringing up the~~ ~~rear~~, and Mr. Cochrane as chaperone or governesses. The good time we had in Brantford will long be remem-