Right Hon. Arthur Meighen,
House of Commons,
Ottawa.

Dear Mr. Meighen:

After seeing you in Ottawa I have given considerable thought to the matters we discussed.

I have taken the liberty of writing Mr. Caham and I am enclosing a copy of my letter to him. This speaks for itself, and I hope it will not have your disapproval.

With kindest personal regards, and the season's best wishes,

Yours faithfully,
