With reference to the case of Joseph Jerome Clarke the son of Joseph and Anne Clarke, and of Sarah J.
 Clarke the widow of the late Alexander Clarke, I beg to inform you that there does not appear to be any reason why if the identity of these Indians be properly established by you, they should not be paid their shares of the Capital fund of Mr. Wyandott's of London. There is the same to be.

H. Patterson Esq.

Trinidad,
