

It is, I believe, all to the good that the exact position of the several governments should now be made known to the public in ^{the} ~~words~~ of their own representatives.

I might say that the Dominion doubly welcomes this ^{plenary session} ~~opportunity~~ in that, while its ~~own~~ proposals and position are fully known to all the provinces, the Dominion has still to be informed of the position of some of the provinces, and of the full extent to which there is agreement in principle on the proposals which the Dominion has put forth.

I shall ^{at once} ~~now~~ give a summary of the Dominion proposals as they now stand.
