

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE in the case of A-28506 Gunner WEAVER, A.F., No. 7 Company, on strength of No. 1 Canadian Signals Reinforcement Unit, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas.

By direction of the Commanding Officer the evidence is taken on oath.

FIRST WITNESS
for the prosecution

Captain R.F. Ferrie, Adjutant, No. 1 Training Wing, No.
1 Canadian Signals Reinforcement Unit, an officer of the Canadian Army Overseas, after having been duly sworn,
states as follows:

I, Captain R.F. Ferrie, Adjutant, No. 1 Training Wing, No.
1 C.S.R.U., present a copy of the Standing Orders for sentries of the Main Guard, Delville Barracks, purporting to be signed by Captain I. Sillars, R.C.C.S., who was Adjutant at the time the orders were published. Copy of Standing Orders for the Main Guard, Delville Barracks is marked appendix "A".

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

R.F. Ferrie
.....
(R.F. Ferrie) Captain.

SECOND WITNESS
for the
prosecution

B-31159 A/Sgt. Currie, R.I., Messing Sergeant, Delville
Officer's Mess, on strength of No. 1 Training Wing, No. 1
C.S.R.U., after having been duly sworn, states:

I am, B-31159 A/Sgt. Currie, R.I., Messing Sergeant, Delville Officer's Mess, No. 1 Training Wing, No. 1
C.S.R.U. On the night of the 26-27 Aug 43, at approximately 0200 hrs I had gone to bed and awoke on hearing a rifle shot but I did not get up until I heard someone calling for help. I put on my tunic and went outside to investigate. At the Delville Officers gate Sentry box I found Gunner Weaver had been injured and immediately went to phone the F.A.P. I then came outside and found Lieut. Carson attending the wounded man. The, Lieut.
Carson and I assisted in taking off the wounded man's sock, anklet and boot from his left leg. There had been no response from the F.A.P. so I went inside and phoned again on instructions from Lieut. Carson. We then took Gunner Weaver in to the warmth of the kitchen in the Delville Officer's Mess. The ambulance came shortly after and took him away. During the affair Gnr. Weaver did not speak to me at all.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

Erwin A.D.
.....
(B-31159 A/Sgt. Currie, R.I.)

THIRD WITNESS
for the
prosecution

Lieut. C.C. Carson, on strength of No. 1 Canadian Signals Reinforcement Unit, an officer of the Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn, states:

I am Lieut. C.C. Carson, on strength of No. 1 Canadian Signals Reinforcement Unit. On the night of 26-27
Aug 43, I was asleep in my quarters - hut 22, room 4.
At approximately 0210 hours, I was awakened by the sound of a rifle shot, followed a few moments later by cries for help. I heard a sound of running feet and on looking out of my window I saw a light flickering around the my