

Min.—Though the waters thereof roar and be troubled, though the mountains shake with the swelling thereof.

Cong.—There is a river the streams whereof shall make glad the city of God, the holy place of the tabernacles of the most High.

Min.—One thing have I desired of the Lord, that will I seek after; that I may dwell in the house of the Lord all the days of my life, to behold the beauty of the Lord, and to enquire in His temple.

Cong.—For in the time of trouble He shall hide me in His pavilion; in the secret of His tabernacle shall He hide me; He shall set me up upon a rock.

Min.—The Lord hear thee in the day of trouble; the name of the God of Jacob defend thee;

Cong.—Send thee help from the sanctuary, and strengthen thee out of Zion.

Min.—But the hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth; for the Father seeketh such to worship Him.

Cong.—God is a spirit, and they that worship Him must worship Him in spirit and in truth.

Min.—Let Thy work appear unto Thy servants and Thy glory unto their children.

Cong.—And let the beauty of the Lord our God be upon us, and establish Thou the work of our hands upon us; yea the work of our hands establish Thou it.

Min.—Pray for the peace of Jerusalem. They shall prosper that love Thee.

Cong.—Peace be within Thy walls and prosperity within Thy palaces.

HYMN NUMBER SIX HUNDRED AND FORTY-SIX

1 O THOU whose hand hath brought us
Unto this joyful day,
Accept our glad thanksgiving,
And listen as we pray:
And may our preparation
For this day's service be
With one accord to offer
Ourselves, O Lord, to Thee.

2 For this new house we praise Thee,
Reared by Thine own command;
For every generous bosom,
And every willing hand;
And now within Thy temple
Thy glory let us see
For all its strength and beauty
Are nothing without Thee.

3 And oft as here we gather,
And hearts in worship blend,
May truth reveal its power,
And fervent prayer ascend;
Here may the busy toiler

Rise to the things above;
The young, the old, be strengthened,
And all men learn Thy love.

4 And as the years roll over,
And strong affections twine,
And tender memories gather
About this sacred shrine,
May this its chief distinction,
Its glory ever be,
That multitudes within it
Have found their way to Thee.

5 Lord God, our fathers' helper,
Our joy and hope and stav,
Grant us Thy gracious earnest
Of Thy coming day:
Our yearning Thou knowest;
We seek Thy throne,
O come, Thy presence
Make our house Thine own.
Amen.
