

of the affairs of the Society, and who shall hold office for the term of one year, or until their successors are appointed.

6. The offices of Secretary-Treasurer and of Librarian may at any time be united.

7. The Committee so elected shall have power to add two to its numbers, and the members so added, shall have in all respects, the status of ordinary elected members of the Committee.

8. In the event of a vacancy occurring in the Committee, the remaining members thereof shall have power to fill such vacancy for the unexpired term.

9. The Committee, of whom four shall form a quorum, shall have entire control of all the affairs of the Society.

10. The Committee shall have control of the funds of the Society, and shall cause to be prepared annually a detailed statement of all receipts and disbursements, which statement shall be submitted at the annual business meeting.

11. The Committee may convene a special business meeting of the Society at any time.

12. On a written requisition signed by any ten members of the Society, setting forth in general terms the object of such meeting, the Secretary shall, within one week, call a special business meeting of the Society by one week's written notice, stating the assigned reason for such meeting, and at