

THE BOY'S STORY.

"The boy's story is the best that was ever told."—Mrs. Lirriper; Dickens.

WONDERFUL story is yours, dear boy,
The best that was ever told;
Story of peace and of endless joy,
And life that does not grow old;

Story of loved ones who never die,
And justice that never ends;
Story of men with a purpose high;
Story of faithful friends;

Story of lands where all days are bright,
Where no one is ever poor;
Story of men who for truth and right
Stand fast with devotion pure.

Life may not be what in youth it seems,
Dreams may not all come true;
But 'twill be sweeter because your dreams
Will still be a part of you.

Beautiful visions of boyhood days
Deep down in your heart live on,
Clearing your sky so that Hope's bright rays
May shine as in youth they shone.
