

Sharples Tubular Separators

Will you buy a separator because the agent is a "good fellow?" Some people do. Tubulars talk for themselves—are bought for themselves.

If You Have a Brand New Separator not a Tubular, put it in the garret.

Get a Sharples Tubular, guaranteed to make enough more butter than the other, from the same milk, to pay 25 per cent yearly dividend on the cost of the machine. You test them side by side.

Rockefeller is hunting a place to put money at 6 per cent; here is a guaranteed 25 per cent to you. While this dividend pays your bills the Tubular makes your life more pleasant by pleasing your wife.

A waist low milk vat saves your back. Simple bowl—easy to wash—the only one that is so. Automatic oiling; the only one that has. Easier to turn than others and safer. Catalogue A-193 explains better.

Canadian Transfer Points: Winnipeg, Toronto, Quebec, St. John's, Calgary.

THE SPICE OF LIFE.

THE MULE AND THE MAN.

A man there was once who was badly addicted

To language not bad, but far worse.

His verbal perversions were quite unrestricted:

To put it quite plainly he'd curse

With richness of diction and great animation

At any old place and on slight provocation.

One day something happened, annoying extremely—

The limit in short it appeared—

A mule, very likely—and language unseemly

By all the spectators was feared,

But there stood the man open-mouthed and blank gazing,

His silence was eloquent, also amazing.

Some moments he stood there and no word he uttered.

Expectancy stood on tiptoe.

And one to another the people they muttered,

"Just wait; it's comin', I know."

Another short pause and the silence was broken

And these were the words by that reprobate spoken:

"I can't do it justice," he said with a sigh,

Then added, alas! "But—it, I'll try."

And he made a fairly good bluff.

DISGRACEFUL DEFICIENCIES.

Orison Swett Marden Says It Is a Disgrace:

To half-do things.

Not to develop our possibilities.

To be lazy, indolent, indifferent.

To do poor, slipshod, botched work.

To give a bad example to young people.

To have crude, brutish, repulsive manners.

To hide a talent because you have only one.

To live a half life when a whole life is possible.

Not to be scrupulously clean in person and surrounding.

To acknowledge a fault and make no effort to overcome it.

To be ungrateful to friends and to those who have helped us.

To go through life a pigmy when nature intended you for a giant.

To kick over the ladder upon which we have climbed to our position.

To be grossly ignorant in these days of free usages of good society.

To ignore the forces which are improving civilization in your own country.

Not to be able to carry on intelligently conversation upon current topics.

To shirk responsibility in politics, or to be indifferent to the public welfare.

To know nothing of the things we see, handle and enjoy ever day of our lives.

To be ignorant of the general history of the world and of the various countries.

Not to know something of the greatest leaders, reformers, artists and musicians of the world.

Not to have intelligent knowledge of the general affairs of the world, and the inter-relations of nations.

Not to know enough about the laws of health, about physiology and hygiene to live healthfully and sanely.

To vote blindly for party, right or wrong, instead of for principle, because you have been doing so for years.

To be grossly ignorant in these days of free schools, cheap newspapers, periodicals, and circulating libraries.

To be so controlled by any appetite or passion that one's usefulness and standing in the community are impaired.

To be totally ignorant of natural history, to know nothing of the science which underlies the beauties and the marvels of nature.

Not to have an intelligent idea of the country in which we live, not to know its history, its industries, and the conditions of its people.

Not to know anything of the movements for human betterment and not to help them along to the extent of our ability in time or money.

To live in the midst of schools, libraries, museums, lectures, picture galleries, and improvement clubs, and not to avail oneself of their advantages.—O. S. Marden, in Success.
