Extract of a letter from P. J. Lacrolx, Est., of Montreal.]

I beg to state that in July, 1860, I went to the Springs for the parpose of seasing their efficacy in a case of the most violent Rheumaisen, under which I list been unforting for several years previous. After essemining at the Springs for about three weeks, and making free use of the Waters, my limbs were carried; relieved from all pain, and my health perfectly restored. Several of my riends, to whom I have recommended the Springs, save me that they have appreciated immediate, relief from their use. I consider the Waters of the Caledonia Springs to be most efficacious in cases of Rheuminium.
