THE BRITISH PERIODICALS
AND THE FARMERS' GUIDE.

LEONARD SCOTT & Co.,
No 54, Gold Street, New York,
CONTINUE to publish the four leading British Quarterly Reviews and Black-wood's Magazine, in addition to which they have recently commenced the publication of a valuable Agricultural Work called
"THE FARMERS' GUIDE TO SCIENTIFIC AND PRACTICAL AGRICULTURE,"
By HENRY STEPHENS, F. R. S., of Edinburgh, Author of "The Book of the Farm," &c., &c., assisted by JOHN P. NORTON, M. A., New Haven, Professor of Scientific Agriculture in Yale College, &c., &c.

This highly valuable Work will comprise two large royal octavo volumes, containing over 1400 pages, with 12 or 24 splendid Steel Engravings, and more than 600 Engravings on Wood, in the highest style of the Art, illustrating almost every implement of husbandry now in use by the best farmers, the best methods of ploughing, planting, haying, harvesting, &c., &c., the various domestic animals in their highest perfection; in short, the pictorial feature of the book is unique, and will render it of inestimable value to the student of agriculture.

The Work is being published in Semi-Monthly Numbers, of 64 pages each, exclusive of the Steel Engravings, and is sold at 25 cents each, or $3 for the entire Work in Numbers, of which there will be at least 22.

The British Periodicals Re-Published are as follows, viz.:—
The London Quarterly Review, (Conservative,)
The Edinburgh Review, (Whig.)
The North British Review, (Free-Church.)
The Westminster Review, (Liberal,)
AND
Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine, (Tory.)

Although the Work is edited by the political shades above indicated, yet but a small portion of their contents is devoted to political subjects. It is their literary character which gives them their chief value, and in that they stand confessedly far above all other journals of literature. Professor Wilson, the literary genius of Christopher North, maintains its ancient celebrity, and is, at this moment, the busiest of your Comic Lecturers. The Works of Bulwer and other literary notables, written for Blackwood's Magazine, and first appearing in its columns here in Great Britain and the United States. Such as the "The Caxtons" and "My New Novel," (both by Bulwer,) "My Beginning Medal," "The Green Hand," and other serials, of which numerous rival editions are issued by the leading publishers in this country, have to be reprinted by those publishers from the pages of Blackwood, after it has been issued by Messrs. Scott & Co., so that Subscribers to the Reprint of that Magazine may always rely on having the earliest reading of these fascinating tales.

Where are they who went to battle, Randolph, Murray, sworn to you?
Where are they, our brothers, children? Have they met the English foe?
Why art thou alone, unfollowed? Is it weal, or is it woe?"

DR. HALSEY'S GUM-COATED FOREST PILLS.

THESE PILLS are warranted not to contain any Mercury or Mineral whatever. They purge without griping, nauseating, or weakening; can be taken at any time without hinderrance from business, change of diet, or danger of taking cold. They neither have the taste or smell of medicine, and are five times more effectual in the cure of disease than any Pills in use.

But a short time is required to prove the great and good Pills were first made known to the public, yet thousands have already experienced their good effects. Invalids given over by their Physicians as incurable have found relief, and been restored to sound and vigorous health from their use.

Never has any remedy had more reliable and stronger proofs of its good qualities than Dr. Halsey's Forest Pills. Testimonial after testimonial, showing their great powers of curing in almost every case of disease, have been tendered to us by individuals of undoubted character and respectability. The following testimony is from a respectable and wealthy farmer residing near Utica, New York:—
UTICA, Nov. 9, 1845.

Every fall, for several years back, I have had severe sickness in my family of Bilious Disorders, and Ague and Fever. In the fall of 1843, two of my sons were taken at the same time with Bilious Fever. I procured the common remedies usually administered by the pollitical shades above indicated, yet but a small portion of their contents is devoted to political subjects. It is their literary character which gives them their chief value, and in that they stand confessedly far above all other journals of literature. Professor Wilson, the literary genius of Christopher North, maintains its ancient celebrity, and is, at this moment, the busiest of your Comic Lecturers. What artificial appearance equal to that vivid expression of countenance which emanates from blooming health? What paints compare with the rich glowing complexion which health imparts, and through the transparent texture of the skin? What cleanses are more regretting than those of nature, by her own hand? Let Dr. Halsey's Forest Wine supply the place of all cosmetics. The use of this Wine for a short time, will force from the system every humor, causing through the veins, penetrates the minutest fibres that convey the blood to the skin, and by the aid of all unhealthy pimples and blotches to disappear, imparting to the medical man, who can refer to his patronage in the most respectful manner, his professional patronage, the utmost confidence should be extended. DR. HALSEY'S FOREST WINE.

THE discovery of the FOREST WINE is the greatest blessing of the age. Put up in Quart Bottles, a single bottle of which does more good, and goes farther in the cure of Disease, than ten bottles of any Sarsaparilla in use, and warranted to cure without any unpleasant or weakening effect.

The method by which all Sarsaparillas, and other similar medicines are prepared, is by boiling the Roots or Plants to obtain the extracts. Their medicinal virtues are thus principally evaporated and destroyed.

It is not to be wondered at then, that ten and even twenty bottles of these Sarsaparillas are sometimes taken without any perceptible benefit. Not so with the Forest Wine! By the invention of a most wonderful chemical apparatus, a perfect wine is produced without heating; retaining, at the same time, all the delicate and healing properties of the rare medicinal plants of which it is composed, thus rendering the Forest Wine the most efficient medicine the world ever produced, at the same time the most agreeable.

NERVOUS DISORDERS

Are diseases of the mind as well as the body, are usually brought on by troubles and afflictions, and are most common to persons of delicate constitutions and sensitive minds. Any one thus afflicted, will find relief from the fearful anticipations of evil from the slightest causes, generally overcoming their nervousness. Another use for the Wine and Pills are an energetic remedy in these complaints.

Extract of a letter from Mr. —— to the Rats with which my premises is infested.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 8, 1848.

DEAR SIR,—Your Forest Wine and Pills have cured me of a Cough which had settled on my lungs, and was fast undermining my constitution. Night after night I have been kept in a state of suffering, and in a short time would have been afflicted for many years. Her body was almost reduced to a skeleton. Her sufferings disturbed in her sleep by fearful dreams, awaking quite exhausted and covered with perspiration, and at times laboring under difficulty of breathing, rendered the utmost anxiety painful to her. By the use of one bottle of the Wine, and a box of the Pills she is now in perfect health, and has regained her flesh and color, and enjoys society as well as ever.

GENERAL DEBILITY, EMACIATION, WASTING OF THE BODY, &c.

Many persons are afflicted with some one of the above complaints, without being able to trace it to any particular cause, and therefore are at a loss to find the proper remedy until the disease becomes constitutional. These disorders are often characterized by a sense of sinking, or want of exhaustion after exercise. Sometimes alternate alternoness, lassitude, and, at times, paleness or flushing of the countenance, or palpitations of the heart, or hysterics.

The excellent effects which have ever attended the use of the Wine and Pills in every species of debility, is conclusive evidence of its happy results in this class of disorders. Many have resorted to these medicines as an experiment, and have been speedily cured. For Wine, Dozen orders and Debility, the Wine and Pills are taken according to the directions on the label.

AGUE AND FEVER, OR CHILLS,

Are caused by the miasmatic effluvia arising from marshes, decayed vegetables, and low damp situations. In Fever and Ague, the Forest Wine and Pills are a sovereign remedy. When they have been taken agreeably to the directions, we have never known them to fail in effecting a complete cure. In the first place, by the use of the Forest Pills in time, that their operations may subside before the return of the chill. The system being now well cleansed, take three or four large doses of the Wine, to prevent the return of fever, immediately after the hour before the period for the chill to return. This breaks the ague, after which the Wine should be continued in small doses, for a week or two, to prevent a relapse.
