

The Klondike Nugget

(DAWSON'S PIONEER PAPER) ISSUED SEMI-WEEKLY On Wednesday and Saturday GEO. M. ALLEN, Editor and Manager

WEDNESDAY, JULY 26, 1899 NOTICE When a newspaper offers its advertising at a nominal figure, it is a practical admission of its value.

THE NEW NUGGET.

The Nugget's new plant has been erected in Dawson and will be placed in operation as soon as a building can be erected and the plant placed in running order.

AFRAID OF IT.

A little boy was once asked why he was afraid of the Klondike. The answer was "Nothing." If that intelligent boy were with us today and were asked why he was afraid of the Klondike, his answer would doubtless be a royal commission to investigate the Yukon administration.

However, public opinion remains, and especially after the exhaustive and sensational expose made by Sir Charles...

increased sufficiently to meet the requirements. ... could be started in Daw-

LATEST OUTSIDE NEWS.

SEATTLE, July 9.—Dr. L. O. Wilcoxon, a prominent and wealthy Klondiker, is making a business trip to Seattle. The doctor has some strong views on Yukon affairs and discussed them without reservation today.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Captain Howard arrived from Ottawa Monday to look after his mining interests here.

THE DARK SHADOW.

Edmund Ward, aged 28 years and a former resident of New Zealand, died from congestion of the liver on Monday, a few minutes after he had been taken to the Good Samaritan hospital.

DISOLUTION OF PARTNERSHIP.

Please take notice that the partnership heretofore existing between Frank H. Duden and John Scollard, partners operating the Aurora restaurant, First Avenue, Dawson, has this day been dissolved by mutual consent.

MINING MACHINERY.

The steamer Sault Ste Marie, which arrived a few days ago, has for sale material that will interest mine owners, such as centrifugal pumps, engines, boilers, hoister, etc.

KLONDIKER BUNKOED.

G. W. Johnson, a Klondiker, who lately returned to the outside, was bunkoed out of $200 at Seattle on the 6th. While walking about the city he fell in with a well-appearing stranger.

SPANISH PRISONERS TO BE RELEASED.

MANILA, July 7.—The Spanish commissioners, who went to Manila for a conference with Aguirre regarding the surrender of the Spanish prisoners in the hands of the Filipinos, returned here last night.

THE OLD MAN FEELS BETTER.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 9.—Jim Jeffries, champion pugilist of the world, arrived in this city from the east this afternoon. He was met at the depot by a large crowd of admirers, who welcomed the new champion amid the strains of a brass band. Among those who welcomed him was Mr. Jeffries, Sr., who has been conducting revival services in the state and praying for his son's defeat, in the hope that a defeat would tend to make him better in his mode of life.

WASHINGTON, July 9.—Ambassador Choate and Lord Salisbury are almost deadlocked over the modus vivendi fixing the Alaskan boundary. Neither side will accept the provisional line proposed by the other.

ALASKAN BOUNDARY DISPUTE.
