At the Rink.

"And don't you skate, little girl?"

he asked, as he sat down beside her.

"Oh, no sir."

"Do you come here just to watch the skaters?"

"Oh, no, I come to watch Mrs. R."

"Who's she?"

"She's papa's second wife. He don't want her to come, but she will to it."

"And why do you watch her?"

"Well papa wanted her to promise that she wouldn't lean on anybody when she was skating with 'em, and that she wouldn't flirt when she was resting, but she wouldn't promise, and so I came to watch her. These short marks are when she leans and these long ones when she flirts, and papa puts them away and says when we get enough to get a divorce on, he'll carry some one that can't skate."

NEWS OF THE WORLD.

All the important events of the week ending on Tuesday evening.

Montreal cotton manufacturers have perfected their arrangements for forcing an advance in the price of their productions.

The license fund deposited in the bank by the Dominion license commissioners for Kingston has been appropriated by the Ontario Government.

The Masonic brethren under the jurisdiction of the Grand Lodge of Quebec have been prohibited from intercourse with the Grand Lodge of England.

S. Brooks Sanborn, advocate of Sherbrooke, Que., fatally shot himself on Saturday morning. He was exhibiting the working of his revolver to his son.

The Chaudiere lumbermen anticipate a boom in trade next summer.
Large orders are being received, and a number of this season's cuts have already been disposed of.

Windsor saloon-keepers are blessing the stranger who stole a numerous signed petition for the Scott Act from a prominent temperance man at a fire recently.

Mr. Jas. Beamish, sentenced for manslaughter, who was pardoned from the penitentiary a few weeks ago, died at his home recently, aged 52 years and 8 months.

While Mrs. James Carr, of the township of Huntingdon, Hastings, was driving down a steep hill the buggy broke and she was thrown out falling on her head, and receiving injuries which caused her death the next day.

The Supreme Court Judges have declared that the clauses of the Dominion License Act which provide for the enforcement of the Scott Act are within the competency of the Dominion Parliament.

The ice bridge across the Niagara River reaches from near the falls down the river fully half way to the suspension bridge, and in some places the ice is piled as high as 60 feet. The ice bridge, ice-clad trees and banks present a picturesque scene seldom equalled.

The Miller's Association have forwarded an address to the different millers in Ontario, asking them to confer with the Dominion representatives in their constituencies, so as to get them to vote for an increase of cents on the duty on a barrel of flour.
There are now 50 cents on the barrel and the increase would make $1.

Great excitement has been seen in the western part of the Province of Quebec by a notice published by the Commissioner of Crown Lands, that the Quebec Government intend evicting a large number of settlers in the Gatineau Valley, canceling the patents and offering the property for sale to the highest bidder. A settlers league has been formed, and it is feared that any attempt at ejectment will be forcibly resisted. The eviction would cause great hardship.
