The trapping season this year has been an unusually good one, both from the number of pelts and the price obtained for them.

Mr. Leonard Johnston was a recent visitor at the home of Mr. A. Crummy, Frankville.

Mrs. Irwin Wiltsse has been called to Windsor, Ont. on account of the illness of Dr. Harold Wiltsse's son.

Mr. R. Steacy, Seeley's Bay at the home of her mother Mrs. J. Morris.

We are pleased to see Mr. George Bulford at home again after spending nine months in the Brockville Hospital. Mr. Bulford spent a couple days with his sister, Mrs. Miskelley, Smith's Falls.

Mr. Hamilton who sang in Scotch costume was the feature of the evening and was certainly popular with his audience.—Citizen, Ottawa. Hear him in the Town Hall, Athens, April 21, under the auspices of the Epworth League.

Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Webster, who have been visitors at the home of Mrs. Webster's mother, Mrs. J. Morris, left on Monday eve. for their home in Ottawa.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Cornell, Toronto, are guests at the home of his mother, Mrs. H. E. Cornell.

A splendid programme was given. Tom Hamilton, Ottawa's Harry Luder, made the men's sides sore with his inimitable wit and humorous songs.—Journal, Ottawa. Hear him in the Town Hall, Athens, April 21, under the auspices of the Epworth League.

The W. M. S. Thankoffering Service held on Thursday last was well attended and the program was appropriate and much enjoyed by those present.

Miss May Judd, and little sister, of Soperton, were Easter visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Conroy.

Mrs. McDonald, Gananoque, at the home of her father, Mr. George Ireland.

Born, April 12, to Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Bates, Wiltse St., a daughter.

The comic element was supplied by Tom Hamilton and he certainly is a star. The audience could not get enough of him although he was on ten times.—Spencerville Gazette. Hear him in the Town Hall, Athens, April 21, under the auspices of the Epworth League.

Word has been received from Vancouver stating that Mr. Walter Lander's health has improved so much as to allow him to resume his occupation.

Mr. and Mrs. N. G. Scott and Lawrence spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. Scott's father, at Addison.

Mr. T. S. Kendrick made a business trip to Toronto last week.

The Scotch element was supplied by Mr. Tom Hamilton of Ottawa, which he sang to perfection and was loudly applauded and his most popular selection was "Jeanie McNeil."—Kempenville Gazette. Hear him in the Town Hall, Athens, April 21, under the auspices of the Epworth League.

The members of the Pansy Mission Band will be pleased to have their friends come and hear them as they represent Mother Goose and her family as Mission Workers, in the school room of the Methodist church on Saturday, April 17, at 3 p.m., the boys and girls Thankoffering service.

Miss Nellie and Miss Geraldine Kelly who enjoyed their Easter holidays at the home of their parents here left for their schools on Monday.

Mr. J. H. Redmond, painter and decorator, has the contract for the complete re-decoration of the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Scovill.

Mr. Tom Hamilton, Scotch Canadian and Entertainer certainly gave a splendid programme. He is an artist of large repertoire and his adaptability fell in with the Holiday mood of his audience in his songs, "Inverary," "Tobermory," and "Nanny," and "I Love A Lassie," and rendered in inimitable style, besides the stronger appeal in sentiment of "The Sunshine of Your Smiles," and to the hearty encore unsparingly given him to the demands of his audience who showed such appreciation of his work and ensuring himself of a full house should he ever return.—Cornwall Standard. Hear him in the Town Hall, Athens, April 21, under the auspices of the Epworth League.

Mr. Douglas Fox left today for Calgary, Alta., where he has been transferred to a Branch of the Standard Bank there. We wish Mr. Fox all kinds of success in his new home.

LIFE.

When I wake in the morn at the song of the birds,
 Or with the glad rays of the sun;
 I silently pray to God that the day
 May be as the Morning begun.
 For though we assume our tasks in
 in the world,
 We may dwell in His "secret Place."
 And thus as I pause in my room awhile
 And seek for needful grace.
 And then go forth with His law in my mind,
 Patient, kind and true;
 It seems that others are more inclined,
 To do only the right things too.
 E. Robeson.

CARD OF THANKS.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo Bulford and family wish to thank their neighbors and friends for kindness shown during Mr. Bulford's illness.
