thousand dollars in gold was paid by five miles west of the town until he Edward A. Cudahy, the millionaire packer, as a ransom fon his son, Edward Oudaby, ir., who was abducted by a gang of kidnappers last Tuesday might. Yesterday, about noon, several hours after a jetter had been left on the lawn of the Cadaby residence, another missive was delivered to Mr. Oudaby through the mails, and contained a proposition to return the boy, safe and anharmed, provided the sam of $25,000 were paid that might. In the letter were full directions as to where the money was to be left, and the assurance was given that the missing boy would be allowed to return house within a few hours of the time when the cash was received. A consultation was held and the matter gone over in detail. Plans were discussed for capturing the bandits, when they should make their appearance at the rendezvous that had been designated, but one after another of these plans were dropped as being impracticable. Finally, impelled by the strain under which the entire household was laboring, Mr Cudahy decided to comply with the terms offered and ransom his son. A trusted messenger, aworn to secrecy, was sent for the money, which was brought to the Cudahy residence. After dinner Mr. Oudahy had one of his horses harnessed to a light buggy, and taking the money in it with him, started alone for the designated place at which the money was to be left. In the buggy packer, as a ransom for his son, Ed-

Omaha, Neb., Dec. 21.-Twenty-five he carried a red lantern. He drove five miles west of the town until he came to a white lantern hanging on a a short stick beside the road. Alighting from his buggy Mr. Cudahy deposited the sack containing the money near the stick bearing the white light. Then without seeing anyone he returned to his home. Meantime the abductors had seen the red light coming up the road, and as soon as the buggy disappeared they took the money away and prepared to keep faith with the father. The boy was bundled into a cab, and set down close to his father's house about one o'clock this morning. Where he had been he was unable to say, but as nearly as he could estimate he had been taken five miles south of Omaha South. The cunning of the gang and their thorough knowledge of the geography of the city are evidenced in the plans they had. Close by the place where Mr. Cudahy was directed to leave the ransom for his son the river approaches the road, and it is supposed the men were on watch for the millionaire, and saw his red' light from' a boat. As son as he had driven away, and they had satisfied themselves that no person was lurking near, they probably clambered up the bank, obtained the sack of gold, returned to the boat and escaped, without leaving any telltale footprints. There is absolutely no clue to the identity of the men. Whether young Cudahy will be able to give information that will lead to their capture is not yet known. came to a white lantern hanging on

WHY TOM MARKS SUCCEEDS SO WELL.

Puts on Clean and Attractive Plays and Gives Good Value.

Tom Marks, Manager of Marks Bros.' No. 1 Co., was born in Perth, Ont., and went into the show business in 1882. He travelled through the West and South for four years, then he came back to Canada, where he played for several years exclusively. He returned to the States, where he his been playing the principal cities of Michigan, Ohio and Indiana, with an occasional run into Canada, where he is a big favorite, always filling the houses in every city he visits. The Marks Bros. is a household word, and the young and old, great and small, know the genial comedian, Tom Marks, and all are glad to see him, so consequently he is greeted with packed houses. The Marks Bros. intend staying in Canada until February, when they go to New York State to finish the balance of the season. Tom contemplates a trip to the Northwest next season. He has been made some very tempting offers, but has not fully decided as to accepting them or not, as he is thinking of going to South America or Australia. The Marks Bros. have made wonderful Ont., and went into the show business South America or Australia. The Marks Bros. have made wonderful progress in the amusement business. They have three companies on the road. Tom controls a circuit of theatres through Michigan. The secret of Marks Bros, success is, they give peo-ple the worth of their money, as they run the best popular priced show on run the best popular priced show on the road.

When Tom Marks was asked why the Marks Bros. were so popular in the show business he said: "We have always tried to give the people what they want in a clean, up-to-date manner—comedy drama, vaudeville, illustrated songs, moving pictures, in fact everything to make an evening's entertainment worth double the price of admission."

of admission."

"It is very gratifying to know you put on elevating, clean and decent dramas," said a Planet reporter to Manager Tom Marks, "and that they have been presented in a manner with which no fault can be found."

"You will never find anything else with which no fault can be found."

"You will never find anything else with us," replied Tom, his bright eyes flashing with emphasis. "We do not cater to the class that require coarse jests or questionable illusions, or anything but what is pure and inviting. Should it ever become necessary for me to do so! I shall quit the business, but we do not think we shall ever have any trouble on that account. Public taste is away up now, and I am glad of it. In proof of this, we have been known in Canada for the past 18 years and we are becoming more popular every year; yet we more popular every year; yet we never utter one word that would of-fend the most fastidious and refined." The company on the present occa-sion is large and the acting is excel-lent. They carry their own special scenery and beautiful costumes. Plays and specialties are well put on and that they are flying high," said City Clerk Merritt as he stepped back and with a Rubens glance critically examined his lurid handiwork that glowed on the civic ballot boxes. Ever since Chatham became a city the ballot boxes, black and grimy with dust and age, have borne the legend, "Town." The numbers of the polling booths had also been marked on the boxes black, and often so that one could scarcely distinguish what the
