WOLFVILLE, N. S., AUG. 28, 1896.

Local and Provincial.

Wolfville Division intends holding its annual picnic on Saturday at Black River Falls.

A young man named Webster was drowned in the Corwallis river on Tuesday while rafting hay.

Rev. R. H. Beattie, of New York, will occupy the pulpit of St. Andrew's (Presbyterian) church on Sabbath morning.

Mr. J. M. Shaw, our enterprising tonorial artist, is about to have a plate glass front put in his shop. John is bound to be up to date.

Contributions toward the building fund of the School for the Blind may be left at the office of the Peoples' Bank where a book has been opened for the purpose.

A carload of fruit baskets (about 6,000 in number) was received by Mr. C. A. Patriquin this week. We understand he is prepared to supply those who are in need of them.

Mr. E. L. Collins has sold his residence and property on Gasperau avenue to Mr. C. E. Starr, of this town. We have not heard the price, but understand it was somewhere between $4,000 and $5,000.

Attention is directed to the adv. of the annual excursion to St. John by the Dominion Atlantic railway, which takes place on Monday next. The excursion promises to be a most pleasant one, and the small price of tickets will no doubt draw a large company.

Grand discount sale at the Glasgow House now on. Call and get bargains in all Summer Goods.

The street commissioners have this week been endeavoring to fill up some of the holes in Main street. Several loads of gravel have been dumped in, and in some cases spread out. None of the stones in it weigh over half a ton but yet we have heard some complaints chiefly from bicyclists, though. Some people want the "earth."

In another column will be found an original poem, entitled "The Editor's Maple," which refers in a touching manner to the death of the beautiful tree in front of our office. We are deeply grateful to the author (who is one of our most promising local poets) for his sympathy. We are however, in a measure, comforted by the fine crop of buds in our back yard.

Rev. Mr. Trotter, of British Columbia, a brother of the Rev. T. Trotter, of this town, preached in the Baptist church on Sunday morning and evening last. His appeals on behalf of the Baptists of British Columbia, were most eloquent, and made a deep impression upon the congregation, as was evidenced by the liberal contributions, over $115 being taken at the special collection alone, at the morning service.

The Sabbath-school and congregational picnic of St. Andrew's church, this town, and Chalmers' church, Lower Horton, was held at Oak Island on Wednesday. The day was a delightful one and the picnic was most enjoyable. The grounds at Oak Island are the best suited for picnics of any we know of, and the genial owner, Mr. Huntley, was on hand to do everything within his power to make the picnicers enjoy themselves.

The Editor's Maple. Also I also I must thus die, That once was fresh and green? True type of dull mortality. Case addest ever seen.

They never appear decayed and sore, They form is wading fast; And many a blank is on thy flank, Made by the raving blast.

Now is thy stately column rent, By wedges of the frost, Those rappers which wild winter wields To life's unmeasured cost.

Storms press thee round without a pause, Wood cut on on thy ribs; Thy life is out and so good bye To His Falling Royal Nibs.
