

The Remnant Sale Continues

PICKARD'S.

Customers will please notice that these special reductions on Remnants are for CASH only.

Useful Christmas Presents.

A PAIR OF OVERSHOES.
A PAIR OF WIGWAG SLIPPERS.
A PAIR OF KID SLIPPERS.
A PAIR OF LACE MOOSE MOCCASINS.
A PAIR OF SNOWSHOES.
A PAIR OF VELVET SLIPPERS.
A PAIR OF SKATING BOOTS.
A PAIR OF KID BOOTS.

You will find all these at the
BOOT AND SHOE STORE.

With a large variety of other goods to select from, at very low prices.

A. G. SMITH.

Next Door to Merchants' Bank of Halifax.

"The Representative House of the Maritime Provinces."

W. H. JOHNSON - HALIFAX, N. S.

PIANOS AND ORGANS.

By the leading American and Canadian Manufacturers.

Prices the lowest consistent with quality of instruments for cash or easy payment system.

Mr. Fernando de Anguera, representing this House, is in Sackville for a short time, and has on hand some choice high grade AMERICAN PIANOS, of which inspection is invited.

Flour, Feed, OATMEAL.

3 cars Flour, Feed & Oatmeal.

Having bought previous to the late advance in prices and freights, we can quote at tempting prices.

J. A. McQUEEN.

Point de Bute, Jan. 12, 1887.

New and Fashionable Furs

ETTER & PUGSLEY'S

The low prices of Furs this season have induced us to lay in an immense stock, comprising

Ladies' Black Astrachan Jackets, Fur Lined Circulars and Tippets.

Men's Coon and Lamb Coats.

Ladies' Gents' and Boys' Fur Caps, in South Sea Seal, Baltic Seal, Persian Lamb, Astrachan Lamb, Coyote and Beaver.

Ladies' and Gents' Fur Gloves.

Japan Wolf Robes. Buffalo Robes.

Call and See the Low Prices.

RAW FURS WANTED.

ETTER &amp; PUGSLEY.

Amherst, Dec. 9, 1886.

MORE LIGHT.

50 bbls. American Kerosene,

Water White, Prime White and Standard.

—ALSO—

CANADIAN OIL, 19c. per imp. gallon.

NO CHARGE FOR CASK.

CHAPMAN BROTHERS.

Amherst, Jan. 12th, 1887.

RAISINS, NUTS, &amp;c.

250 BOXES PRIME VALENCIA RAISINS;

25 bags Fresh Nuts, assorted;

12 cases Lunch and Ox Tongue;

50 barrels Beans;

10 puns P. R. Molasses;

50 boxes Electric Soap;

600 "Scalped Herling."

JUST RECEIVED.

RED. S. DeFOREST,

18 South Wharf, ST. JOHN, N. B.

Jan. 10, '87.

White Chester Boar.

THE subscriber has a superior boar, a neighbor White Chester Boar for service.

W. E. LAWRENCE.

Dorchester, Dec. 16, 1886.

LOST.

BETWEEN Sackville Station and Music Hall Block, one BUFFALO ROBE. Finder will be suitably rewarded by leaving at subscriber's store.

W. E. LAWRENCE.

Dorchester, Dec. 16, 1886.

2m

Advertisements for Sale or Let, &amp;c., see fourth page.

For "Property for Sale or Let, &c." see fourth page. "Business Cards" on first page.

Mount Allison Lectures and Concert, &c. Land and Bacon, &c. Jas. R. Ayer Mail Contract, &c. S. J. King Notice, &c. Thos. Lowerson Legal Co-partnership, &c. Walls & Welch The Independent, &c. I. C. Harper Wanted, &c. I. C. Harper

To Advertisers.—Advertisements are requested to be sent to this Office before Wednesday noon if wanted to appear the same week they are sent.

Special Locals.

For same back, side or chest, see Shiloh's Patent Plaster. Price 25 cents. Sold only by C. G. Hart, Sackville.

Found—A number of Trunk Keys, which the owner can have by applying to Wm. J. Virtue.

THAT HACKING COUGH can be quickly cured by Shiloh's Cure. We guarantee it. For sale by C. G. Hart, Sackville.

Sleigh Robes—A few choice Dark Grey Robes, $7.75 and $8.75 to clear, large sizes, C. Pickard.

GROUP WHOOPING COUGH and Bronchitis immediately relieved by Shiloh's Cure. For sale at Hart's Drug Store.

Special inducements in the Remnant line at C. Pickard's. Call early before the assortment is broken.

WILL YOU SUFFER with Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint? Shiloh's Vegetable is guaranteed to cure you. For sale at Hart's Drug Store.

Buy the best Harness in the Province for the smallest amount of money, at John's Harness Shop.

SHILOH'S VEGETABLE is what you need for Constipation, Loss of Appetite, Bile, and all ailments of the Digestive System. Price 25 cents per bottle. Sample free. Sold by C. G. Hart, Sackville.

Don't Forget!—The Tailoring Department at J. L. Black's has over 100 pieces of the latest fashion to select from, and Mr. Peterson makes the choicest of Suits and Overcoats. —2025

LOCAL MATTERS.

ALBERT RAILWAY.—Traffic was resumed between Hillsboro and Harvey Bank last Monday. It is hoped there will be no further suspension.

—Mr. Sidney Kerr, son of S. Kerr, Esq., of the St. John Business College, has been engaged as instructor in gymnastics, calisthenics, and telegraphy, at the Mount Allison Institutions, and will enter upon his duties Feb. 1st.

—The Liberal-Conservative committee of this place have fitted up committee rooms in the store in Music Hall Block formerly occupied by Mr. J. P. Allison. The rooms will be open every evening and friends will be cordially welcomed.

RECEPTION.—The Boston Herald of the 19th inst. says: "The complimentary reception given last evening by Old Colony Lodge, A. F. A. M., in Hingham, to its chaplain, Rev. Alexander T. Bower, and his wife, was in every respect a successful and delightful occasion."

COPPER MINING.—The Freeze Silver and Copper Mine in the Parish of Alma, Albert Co., at present employs forty hands, and the output of ore is about thirty tons per day. The company is making regular shipments of ore to Great Britain.

—The lovers of literature and music in Sackville will be pleased to read the announcement of the Mount Allison course in our advertising columns. The bill of fare as already arranged is a very attractive one, and we understand that other gentlemen of distinguished ability as lecturers are expected to take part. As the lecture room is small, only a limited number of tickets will be sold. Those wishing to obtain tickets should therefore apply early.

WESTMINSTER.—The Basket Soiree which took place in the Hall at Westminster last Monday, the 18th inst., was a decided success. Notwithstanding the very unfavorable state of the weather and roads, about eighty persons assembled to do justice to the good things prepared by the ladies of Westminster Point and vicinity. The auction realized was $14,000. After the contents of the baskets were thoroughly looked after, the choir favored us with music after which, short, but appropriate remarks were made by several of the gentlemen present when the meeting closed by singing the Doxology.

ROYAL ARCANUM.—A pleasant company numbering upwards of forty persons, consisting of members of Crystal Council, No. 480, and their invited guests, sat down last Thursday evening in Royal Arcanum Hall to an oyster supper prepared in Knight's very best style. After an earnest consideration of this part of the business of the evening in which great unanimity was displayed, the attention of the guests was directed by several members of Crystal Council to the merits of Royal Arcanum as an Insurance society and to the good work it has accomplished. This was followed by brief speeches by some of the visitors, and some questions asked by them elicited further information concerning the stability of the order. The proceedings were at once interesting and instructive, and have already resulted in applications for membership.

Religious Services.

—Plan of Methodist Services for Sabbath, Jan. 28th.—Rev. R. W. Weddall will preach at Sackville at 11 a. m., and at Upper Sackville at 3 p. m. Rev. Levi Curtis will preach at Sackville at 7 p. m. Rev. C. Stewart, D. D., will preach at Woodpoint at 2.30 p. m.

—Mr. Abner Hart, of Halifax, has made arrangements with Mr. Amasa Dixon for the sale of Simon's Lintiment. This liment is an excellent article and has a very large sale in Nova Scotia. It has recently been successfully introduced in the Upper Provinces.

—A Grand Rally of the Liberal Conservatives of this parish will be held in the Committee Rooms, Music Hall, on Saturday evening at 7 o'clock.

—Mr. John Horton, one of the oldest inhabitants of Sackville is seriously ill.

—The Liberal-Conservative Convention in Music Hall last Thursday afternoon is said to be the largest and most thoroughly representative convention ever held in this County.

Mayor Duffy, of Moncton, President of the Westernland Co. Liberal-Conservative Association, took the chair, and Mr. H. Atkinson, second as Secretary. On calling the roll it was found that ninety-eight delegates were present out of 104 entering there were but three days notice of the meeting. Besides the delegates there were other gentlemen present from all parts of the county, and the total number assembled could not have been much under three hundred.

The chairman announced that the Convention would at once proceed to the nomination of a candidate, but intimated that those who were not delegates, but were in sympathy with the Liberal-Conservative cause, need not retire.

Mr. J. L. Black, M. P. P., said he was not only glad to meet so many friends of the party, but was extremely proud of the Convention. He could say this without flattery, and he felt that a party which could bring together such large numbers at such short notice must be strongly entrenched in the hearts of the people. When enlightened and receptive minds are united, the result is a powerful force.

Mr. J. L. Black, M. P. P., said he was not only glad to meet so many friends of the party, but was extremely proud of the Convention. He could say this without flattery, and he felt that a party which could bring together such large numbers at such short notice must be strongly entrenched in the hearts of the people. When enlightened and receptive minds are united, the result is a powerful force.

Mr. J. L. Black, M. P. P., said he was not only glad to meet so many friends of the party, but was extremely proud of the Convention. He could say this without flattery, and he felt that a party which could bring together such large numbers at such short notice must be strongly entrenched in the hearts of the people. When enlightened and receptive minds are united, the result is a powerful force.

Mr. J. L. Black, M. P. P., said he was not only glad to meet so many friends of the party, but was extremely proud of the Convention. He could say this without flattery, and he felt that a party which could bring together such large numbers at such short notice must be strongly entrenched in the hearts of the people. When enlightened and receptive minds are united, the result is a powerful force.

Mr. J. L. Black, M. P. P., said he was not only glad to meet so many friends of the party, but was extremely proud of the Convention. He could say this without flattery, and he felt that a party which could bring together such large numbers at such short notice must be strongly entrenched in the hearts of the people. When enlightened and receptive minds are united, the result is a powerful force.

Mr. J. L. Black, M. P. P., said he was not only glad to meet so many friends of the party, but was extremely proud of the Convention. He could say this without flattery, and he felt that a party which could bring together such large numbers at such short notice must be strongly entrenched in the hearts of the people. When enlightened and receptive minds are united, the result is a powerful force.

Mr. J. L. Black, M. P. P., said he was not only glad to meet so many friends of the party, but was extremely proud of the Convention. He could say this without flattery, and he felt that a party which could bring together such large numbers at such short notice must be strongly entrenched in the hearts of the people. When enlightened and receptive minds are united, the result is a powerful force.

Mr. J. L. Black, M. P. P., said he was not only glad to meet so many friends of the party, but was extremely proud of the Convention. He could say this without flattery, and he felt that a party which could bring together such large numbers at such short notice must be strongly entrenched in the hearts of the people. When enlightened and receptive minds are united, the result is a powerful force.

Mr. J. L. Black, M. P. P., said he was not only glad to meet so many friends of the party, but was extremely proud of the Convention. He could say this without flattery, and he felt that a party which could bring together such large numbers at such short notice must be strongly entrenched in the hearts of the people. When enlightened and receptive minds are united, the result is a powerful force.

Mr. J. L. Black, M. P. P., said he was not only glad to meet so many friends of the party, but was extremely proud of the Convention. He could say this without flattery, and he felt that a party which could bring together such large numbers at such short notice must be strongly entrenched in the hearts of the people. When enlightened and receptive minds are united, the result is a powerful force.

Mr. J. L. Black, M. P. P., said he was not only glad to meet so many friends of the party, but was extremely proud of the Convention. He could say this without flattery, and he felt that a party which could bring together such large numbers at such short notice must be strongly entrenched in the hearts of the people. When enlightened and receptive minds are united, the result is a powerful force.

Mr. J. L. Black, M. P. P., said he was not only glad to meet so many friends of the party, but was extremely proud of the Convention. He could say this without flattery, and he felt that a party which could bring together such large numbers at such short notice must be strongly entrenched in the hearts of the people. When enlightened and receptive minds are united, the result is a powerful force.

Mr. J. L. Black, M. P. P., said he was not only glad to meet so many friends of the party, but was extremely proud of the Convention. He could say this without flattery, and he felt that a party which could bring together such large numbers at such short notice must be strongly entrenched in the hearts of the people. When enlightened and receptive minds are united, the result is a powerful force.

Mr. J. L. Black, M. P. P., said he was not only glad to meet so many friends of the party, but was extremely proud of the Convention. He could say this without flattery, and he felt that a party which could bring together such large numbers at such short notice must be strongly entrenched in the hearts of the people. When enlightened and receptive minds are united, the result is a powerful force.

Mr. J. L. Black, M. P. P., said he was not only glad to meet so many friends of the party, but was extremely proud of the Convention. He could say this without flattery, and he felt that a party which could bring together such large numbers at such short notice must be strongly entrenched in the hearts of the people. When enlightened and receptive minds are united, the result is a powerful force.

Mr. J. L. Black, M. P. P., said he was not only glad to meet so many friends of the party, but was extremely proud of the Convention. He could say this without flattery, and he felt that a party which could bring together such large numbers at such short notice must be strongly entrenched in the hearts of the people. When enlightened and receptive minds are united, the result is a powerful force.

Mr. J. L. Black, M. P. P., said he was not only glad to meet so many friends of the party, but was extremely proud of the Convention. He could say this without flattery, and he felt that a party which could bring together such large numbers at such short notice must be strongly entrenched in the hearts of the people. When enlightened and receptive minds are united, the result is a powerful force.

Mr. J. L. Black, M. P. P., said he was not only glad to meet so many friends of the party, but was extremely proud of the Convention. He could say this without flattery, and he felt that a party which could bring together such large numbers at such short notice must be strongly entrenched in the hearts of the people. When enlightened and receptive minds are united, the result is a powerful force.

Mr. J. L. Black, M. P. P., said he was not only glad to meet so many friends of the party, but was extremely proud of the Convention. He could say this without flattery, and he felt that a party which could bring together such large numbers at such short notice must be strongly entrenched in the hearts of the people. When enlightened and receptive minds are united, the result is a powerful force.

Mr. J. L. Black, M. P. P., said he was not only glad to meet so many friends of the party, but was extremely proud of the Convention. He could say this without flattery, and he felt that a party which could bring together such large numbers at such short notice must be strongly entrenched in the hearts of the people. When enlightened and receptive minds are united, the result is a powerful force.

Mr. J. L. Black, M. P. P., said he was not only glad to meet so many friends of the party, but was extremely proud of the Convention. He could say this without flattery, and he felt that a party which could bring together such large numbers at such short notice must be strongly entrenched in the hearts of the people. When enlightened and receptive minds are united, the result is a powerful force.

Mr. J. L. Black, M. P. P., said he was not only glad to meet so many friends of the party, but was extremely proud of the Convention. He could say this without flattery, and he felt that a party which could bring together such large numbers at such short notice must be strongly entrenched in the hearts of the people. When enlightened and receptive minds are united, the result is a powerful force.

Mr. J. L. Black, M. P. P., said he was not only glad to meet so many friends of the party, but was extremely proud of the Convention. He could say this without flattery, and he felt that a party which could bring together such large numbers at such short notice must be strongly entrenched in the hearts of the people. When enlightened and receptive minds are united, the result is a powerful force.

Mr. J. L. Black, M. P. P., said he was not only glad to meet so many friends of the party, but was extremely proud of the Convention. He could say this without flattery, and he felt that a party which could bring together such large numbers at such short notice must be strongly entrenched in the hearts of the people. When enlightened and receptive minds are united, the result is a powerful force.

Mr. J. L. Black, M. P. P., said he was not only glad to meet so many friends of the party, but was extremely proud of the Convention. He could say this without flattery, and he felt that a party which could bring together such large numbers at such short notice must be strongly entrenched in the hearts of the people. When enlightened and receptive minds are united, the result is a powerful force.

Mr. J. L. Black, M. P. P., said he was not only glad to meet so many friends of the party, but was extremely proud of the Convention. He could say this without flattery, and he felt that a party which could bring together such large numbers at such short notice must be strongly entrenched in the hearts of the people. When enlightened and receptive minds are united, the result is a powerful force.

Mr. J. L. Black, M. P. P., said he was not only glad to meet so many friends of the party, but was extremely proud of the Convention. He could say this without flattery, and he felt that a party which could bring together such large numbers at such short notice must be strongly entrenched in the hearts of the people. When enlightened and receptive minds are united, the result is a powerful force.

Mr. J. L. Black, M. P. P., said he was not only glad to meet so many friends of the party, but was extremely proud of the Convention. He could say this without flattery, and he felt that a party which could bring together such large numbers at such short notice must be strongly entrenched in the hearts of the people. When enlightened and receptive minds are united, the result is a powerful force.

Mr. J. L. Black, M. P. P., said he was not only glad to meet so many friends of the party, but was extremely proud of the Convention. He could say this without flattery, and he felt that a party which could bring together such large numbers at such short notice must be strongly entrenched in the hearts of the people. When enlightened and receptive minds are united, the result is a powerful force.

Mr. J. L. Black, M. P. P., said he was not only glad to meet so many friends of the party, but was extremely proud of the Convention. He could say this without flattery, and he felt that a party which could bring together such large numbers at such short notice must be strongly entrenched in the hearts of the people. When enlightened and receptive minds are united, the result is a powerful force.

Mr. J. L. Black, M. P. P., said he was not only glad to meet so many friends of the party, but was extremely proud of the Convention. He could say this without flattery, and he felt that a party which could bring together such large numbers at such short notice must be strongly entrenched in the hearts of the people. When enlightened and receptive minds are united, the result is a powerful force.

Mr. J. L. Black, M. P. P., said he was not only glad to meet so many friends of the party, but was extremely proud of the Convention. He could say this without flattery, and he felt that a party which could bring together such large numbers at such short notice must be strongly entrenched in the hearts of the people. When enlightened and receptive minds are united, the result is a powerful force.

Mr. J. L. Black, M. P. P., said he was not only glad to meet so many friends of the party, but was extremely proud of the Convention. He could say this without flattery, and he felt that a party which could bring together such large numbers at such short notice must be strongly entrenched in the hearts of the people. When enlightened and receptive minds are united, the result is a powerful force.

Mr. J. L. Black, M. P. P., said he was not only glad to meet so many friends of the party, but was extremely proud of the Convention. He could say this without flattery, and he felt that a party which could bring together such large numbers at such short notice must be strongly entrenched in the hearts of the people. When enlightened and receptive minds are united, the result is a powerful force.

Mr. J. L. Black, M. P. P., said he was not only glad to meet so many friends of the party, but was extremely proud of the Convention. He could say this without flattery, and he felt that a party which could bring together such large numbers at such short notice must be strongly entrenched in the hearts of the people. When enlightened and receptive minds are united, the result is a powerful force.

Mr. J. L. Black, M. P. P., said he was not only glad to meet so many friends of the party, but was extremely proud of the Convention. He could say this without flattery, and he felt that a party which could bring together such large numbers at such short notice must be strongly entrenched in the hearts of the people. When enlightened and receptive minds are united, the result is a powerful force.

Mr. J. L. Black, M. P. P., said he was not only glad to meet so many friends of the party, but was extremely proud of the Convention. He could say this without flattery, and he felt that a party which could bring together such large numbers at such short notice must be strongly entrenched in the hearts of the people. When enlightened and receptive minds are united, the result is a powerful force.

Mr. J. L. Black, M. P. P., said he was not only glad to meet so many friends of the party, but was extremely proud of the Convention. He could say this without flattery, and he felt that a party which could bring together such large numbers at such short notice must be strongly entrenched in the hearts of the people. When enlightened and receptive minds are united, the result is a powerful force.

Mr. J. L. Black, M. P. P., said he was not only glad to meet so many friends of the party, but was extremely proud of the Convention. He could say this without flattery, and he felt that a party which could bring together such large numbers at such short notice must be strongly entrenched in the hearts of the people. When enlightened and receptive minds are united, the result is a powerful force.

Mr. J. L. Black, M. P. P., said he was not only glad to meet so many friends of the party, but was extremely proud of the Convention. He could say this without flattery, and he felt that a party which could bring together such large numbers at such short notice must be strongly entrenched in the hearts of the people. When enlightened and receptive minds are united, the result is a powerful force.

Mr. J. L. Black, M. P. P., said he was not only glad to meet so many friends of the party, but was extremely proud of the Convention. He could say this without flattery, and he felt that a party which could bring together such large numbers at such short notice must be strongly entrenched in the hearts of the people. When enlightened and receptive minds are united, the result is a powerful force.

Mr. J. L. Black, M. P. P., said he was not only glad to meet so many friends of the party, but was extremely proud of the Convention. He could say this without flattery, and he felt that a party which could bring together such large numbers at such short notice must be strongly entrenched in the hearts of the people. When enlightened and receptive minds are united, the result is a powerful force.

Mr. J. L. Black, M. P. P., said he was not only glad to meet so many friends of the party, but was extremely proud of the Convention. He could say this without flattery, and he felt that a party which could bring together such large numbers at such short notice must be strongly entrenched in the hearts of the people. When enlightened and receptive minds are united, the result is a powerful force.

Mr. J. L. Black, M. P. P., said he was not only glad to meet so many friends of the party, but was extremely proud of the Convention. He could say this without flattery, and he felt that a party which could bring together such large numbers at such short notice must be strongly entrenched in the hearts of the people. When enlightened and receptive minds are united, the result is a powerful force.

Mr. J. L. Black, M. P. P., said he was not only glad to meet so many friends of the party, but was extremely proud of the Convention. He could say this without flattery, and he felt that a party which could bring together such large numbers at such short notice must be strongly entrenched in the hearts of the people. When enlightened and receptive minds are united, the result is a powerful force.

Mr. J. L. Black, M. P. P., said he was not only glad to meet so many friends of the party, but was extremely proud of the Convention. He could say this without flattery, and he felt that a party which could bring together such large numbers at such short notice must be strongly entrenched in the hearts of the people. When enlightened and receptive minds are united, the result is a powerful force.

Mr. J. L. Black, M. P. P., said he was not only glad to meet so many friends of the party, but was extremely proud of the Convention. He could say this without flattery, and he felt that a party which could bring together such large numbers at such short notice must be strongly entrenched in the hearts of the people. When enlightened and receptive minds are united, the result is a powerful force.

Mr. J. L. Black, M. P. P., said he was not only glad to meet so many friends of the party, but was extremely proud of the Convention. He could say this without flattery, and he felt that a party which could bring together such large numbers at such short notice must be strongly entrenched in the hearts of the people. When enlightened and receptive minds are united, the result is a powerful force.

Mr. J. L. Black, M. P. P., said he was not only glad to meet so many friends of the party, but was extremely proud of the Convention. He could say this without flattery, and he felt that a party which could bring together such large numbers at such short notice must be strongly entrenched in the hearts of the people. When enlightened and receptive minds are united, the result is a powerful force.

Mr. J. L. Black, M. P. P., said he was not only glad to meet so many friends of the party, but was extremely proud of the Convention. He could say this without flattery, and he felt that a party which could bring together such large numbers at such short notice must be strongly entrenched in the hearts of the people. When enlightened and receptive minds are united, the result is a powerful force.

Mr. J. L. Black, M. P. P., said he was not only glad to meet so many friends of the party, but was extremely proud of the Convention. He could say this without flattery, and he felt that a party which could bring together such large numbers at such short notice must be strongly entrenched in the hearts of the people. When enlightened and receptive minds are united, the result is a powerful force.

Mr. J. L. Black, M. P. P., said he was not only glad to meet so many friends of the party, but was extremely proud of the Convention. He could say this without flattery, and he felt that a party which could bring together such large numbers at such short notice must be strongly entrenched in the hearts of the people. When enlightened and receptive minds are united, the result is a powerful force.

Mr. J. L. Black, M. P. P., said he was not only glad to meet so many friends of the party, but was extremely proud of the Convention. He could say this without flattery, and he felt that a party which could bring together such large numbers at such short notice must be strongly entrenched in the hearts of the people. When enlightened and receptive minds are united, the result is a powerful force.

Mr. J. L. Black, M. P. P., said he was not only glad to meet so many friends of the party, but was extremely proud of the Convention. He could say this without flattery, and he felt that a party which could bring together such large numbers at such short notice must be strongly entrenched in the hearts of the people. When enlightened and receptive minds are united, the result is a powerful force.

Mr. J. L. Black, M. P. P., said