The Veto Issue May Yet be Compromised in Great Britain

The Fear of an Early Rupture Gives Way to a Feeling of Optimism—Home Rule is Involved in the Issue—The Unionists Driven to Contemplate the Removal of the Disturbing Irish Element—The Government Gives in to the Nationalists and Makes Another Loan of $5,000,000 for Laborers' Cottages in Ireland.

London, July 12.—The situation is greatly changed in the House of Commons and the whole political world. John Redmond's success in getting the ministers to agree to November elections and to postpone the final stages of the budget till then, has produced equal delight and apprehension in the Liberal and Irish circles. The Liberals are pleased because the postponement of the budget leaves the fate of the government entirely in the hands of the House of Commons and thus prevents a chance of any such compromise by the Liberal negotiators as would imperil Liberal principles. Hence that dangerous spirit of misgiving and revolt which threatened open rupture between the ministry and their supporters has been exercised and the whole political temper is again tranquil and even cheerful, so far as the Liberals and Irish ranks are concerned.

The Tories are equally pleased, their opinion being that all this cessation from conflict helps them by soothing the popular passion against the House of Lords. These facts account for the considerable change during the week in the attitude of all parties toward the veto conference. The pessimism which looked for an early rupture or final disagreement, owing to the gulf between the two parties, has given place to a spirit of optimism, and the general impression that the conference will eventually come to an agreement. But, although this transformation of temper may mean something, it cannot be taken too seriously. Never has a political secret been better kept than the proceedings of the conference. Even to his colleagues the negotiators are dumb. Mr. Balfour's illness, moreover, introduces a new element of uncertainty and delay.

Another curious sign of the times is the feeling among the more rational Conservatives that the conference, if it means a compromise on the constitutional question of the Lords' veto, may also mean a compromise on the Irish question. Evidently everybody feels that the solution of the Irish

SUICIDE PACT IN LOVE AFFAIR

Infatuated Pole Shoots Woman
But Failed to End His Own Life

New York, July 13.—Mrs. Antoinette Skora, wife of Earl Skora, formerly a teacher in the University of Krakow, Poland, was found in bed beside her sleeping child, a boy of three, at her home this morning, with three bullet wounds in her body and a fourth in her head. Mrs. Skora first told the police that she had been shot by robbers, but letters were found that revealed that the woman had entered a suicide pact on account of a love affair. The letters were written by a man who was infatuated with Mrs. Skora when she was a student at a seminary in Poland, and who followed her to this country. The letters were from Castimir Malski, a highly educated young Pole. Late last night in Bellevue Hospital, when Malski was taken before the woman, she admitted that he had shot her, and then told the police that the two had joined in a suicide pact, but he had been unable to take his own life, because after he had loaded the revolver, the cartridges missed fire.

The suicide pact, according to Mrs. Skora, who is a handsome woman of 21, was the outgrowth of a boy and girl love affair, which had its inception when she and Malski were in school together.

THE BOY BANDIT WAS CAPTURED

Pittsburg, Pa., July 13.—Edward McDonough, aged 17, the third of the boy bandits who held up a street car early Sunday morning and shot Police Lieutenant Scoville Stewart, was captured early today in the kitchen of his home in Shalersville, by a policeman in plain clothes who had been watching the house for 20 hours. McDonough said he had hidden all day in the woods near his home where the rain drenched him to the skin. While his companions under arrest asserted McDonough fired the shot that wounded the lieutenant, McDonough claims that he was on the fender of the car, covering the motorman with a rusty revolver which would not work. He ran when he heard the shooting. He will be held to await the result of the lieutenant's injuries. Stewart is in a hospital. Late last night it was thought he would recover.

WIFE MURDERER
WENT TO GALLOWES

Whitby, Ont., July 13.—Archie McLaughlin, who was convicted of murdering his wife here and who was sentenced to be hanged, this morning paid the penalty for his crime. McLaughlin all through his trial showed extraordinary nerve and it never deterred him. Even up to the last moment he was cool and collected and went to the scaffold without a flinch. Death was instantaneous and McLaughlin's heart stopped beating just eight minutes after the bolt was sprung, his neck being broken by the drop.

DOG TEARS GIRL'S FACE.

Bull Terrier Leaps on Miss Rose Fies and Bites Her on Shoulder.

New York, July 13.—A bull terrier that was being led by Edward Gillenham, of No. 242 West Twenty-fourth street at Seventh avenue and Thirty-fourth street, attacked Miss Rose Fies, twenty-two years old, of No. 42 West Thirty-seventh street, early yesterday morning, and bit her twice on the left shoulder and tore her left cheek. The young woman was fanning herself when Gillenham was with the dog, and the animal made a leap for the fan. Miss Fies beat him off, but he jumped at her, fastened his teeth in her shoulder, knocked her down and chewed her cheek. Policeman McGowan dragged the dog to the station house to be held for examination by the Board of Health.

HANS' BATTING SLUMP.

Pittsburg, Pa., July 13.—Wiseacres in fandom claim to have found the reason for Hans Wagner's batting slump and incidentally the cause of that 18 to 0 game with Philadelphia. On that day a garage was attached by a constable here, and the building with its contents was ordered to be sold for debt. In the garage was the big shortstop's automobile. The day of that awful game, Monday, Hans could not get his auto, hence the wiseacres say the great catastrophe. Yesterday, Wagner, armed with a writ of replevin and backed up by $1,000 bonds to cover costs and damages in case of suit, charged upon the constable, who delivered the automobile with many apologies.

TOO MUCH DRINK.

Woonaskia, Alberta, July 13.—Ellas Park, a Finlander, obtained a license to hold up a street car by pictures of a train robbery they had seen a few hours previous to their attempt, in which they shot a police lieutenant.

SMUGGLERS HAVE $400,000 IN GEMS

Customs Officials on Lookout
For Diamonds Unlawfully
Taken From Africa

New York, July 13.—Customs officials at New York have been warned to watch for diamonds valued at $400,000 smuggled last week from Luderitz Bay, in the German province of south-west Africa. The first reports that the smugglers were probably aboard a German liner, but now it is believed that the diamonds will be carried to New York.

Small stones are sometimes cut in New York, and if the diamonds smuggled through the German customs lines were brought here it would be possible to cut them into brilliants, and then they could not be identified. The cutting of so great a quantity of small stones in New York, the importers say, would attract attention in the trade. The workmen would certainly talk about it. The American workmen object to cutting stones that weigh less than a half carat. Because of these circumstances, the inspectors say, the government's agents would certainly get information of any attempt to have the smuggled stones cut in New York.

As the diamonds are in the rough, they could be brought to New York without a demand for duty here, as the 10 per cent. duty on diamonds imported into the United States applies only to cut stones. The smugglers come here and are apprehended. It will be a courtesy to Germany. The smugglers defrauded the German government of $153,333.

TRAIN KILLS MINISTER.

Pastor Struck as He Alights from the Cars at Station.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., July 13.—The Rev. Hugh Davis, pastor of the Second Welsh Presbyterian Church, of this city, was killed at this place yesterday as he alighted from a train at the Central Railroad of New Jersey station.

He stepped from the train backward and did not notice that another train was approaching on the adjoining track. He walked directly in front of this train and was instantly killed. He was seventy years old and had been pastor of the church here for years.

Alice Dunn, of Meadville, Pa., Drank
Carbolic Acid Because Her Mother
Doubted Her Word.

Meadville, Pa., July 13.—Because her mother doubted her word and sent her to her room as punishment, ten-year-old Alice Dunn drank carbolic acid to-day and died an hour later. The child was putting her hair up in curl papers preparing for a Sunday school picnic tomorrow, when her mother took her to task for toilet stories.

TWO DIE IN FALLS OFF FIRE ESCAPES

Boy Plunges Five Stories, and
Man's Neck is Broken—Lad
Tumbles off Roof

New York, July 13.—Death hovered over fire escapes yesterday and a boy and young man were killed in falls. James Maher, nine years old, while working on embroidered patterns on the fifth story fire escape of No. 91 First avenue, reached behind him for a pair of scissors and fell to the pavement. His skull was broken.

Nils Bjorkgren, thirty years old, an iron worker, of No. 532 West Forty-ninth street, fell from a fire escape on the fifth floor of No. 503 West Forty-seventh street. He had been working for Gustav Neubek, of No. 517 West Forty-sixth street. Bjorkgren placed a board over the opening in the fire escape. It turned under him and he fell to the ground breaking his neck.

While making repairs in the elevator shaft of the Metropolitan Opera House, Willie East, thirty years old, of No. 430 West Forty-ninth street, and Dominick Caratessa, twenty-nine years, of No. 235 East Twenty-fifth street, fell from the third floor when a board they were seated on broke. Ryan's right ankle was fractured and he was removed to Bellevue by Dr. Baker. His companion sustained a few bruises.

Leon Strauss, of No. 112 East 113th street, fell four stories from the roof of his home and after being rushed to the Harlem Hospital Dr. Richardson said he will be out in a week.

While his mother was preparing supper Joseph Schantnik, ten years old, of No. 27 East Twenty-fifth street, fell out of a fifth story window and received a fractured skull. He was removed to the Lebonon hospital. His injuries will probably be fatal.

BAD INFLUENCE
MOVING PICTURES

Pittsburg, July 13.—Moving pictures depicting train robberies, safe cracking and other crimes, must not be shown here in Pittsburg. Director of Public Safety John M. Morine today notified all managers of moving picture shows that these films would not be permitted under penalty of revocation of license. The recent hubbub of street cars are directly attributable to the influence of these pictures and in one of a few days ago the bandits confessed that they were inspired to hold up a street car by pictures of a train robbery they had seen a few hours previous to their attempt, in which they shot a police lieutenant.
