The introduction of the cost of the new patrol station and a site for it caused a warm discussion. It was decided to do nothing until the Mayor and the chief could agree on something to present to the board. Plans have been asked for from A. W. Peene, the architect, and the commissioners gave the Mayor to understand that they intended to see the plans before any action was taken.

Chicago, March 4.—Playing phenomenal billiards. Willie Hoppe, the young professional, last night took a longer lead over Calvin Demarest, the national amateur champion, in the second session of their six-nights' match. Notwithstanding the fact that Hoppe played the far more difficult 18.6 game, while Demarest played 14.2, the New York youth far outclassed the local player. The score after the night's play was 400 to 214.

Word has been received from Brantford that the team that has been selected to play here on Thursday
