GREW QUITE STOUT. During her long incarceration in Au-burn prison, Mrs. Farmer has spent most of her time in reading religious books. She rarely spoke of her two-year-old son, Peter, who is now with an uncle in Watertown, and told Father Hickey that she had no relatives that she knew of. Her only diversion in the dull routine of prison life has been an occasional game of solitaire. Warden Benham said that he understood that Mrs. Farmer had written to Robley Wilson, of Watertown, giving him an account of her life, which should be giv-en to her son, Peter, when he becomes of age. Her prayerbook she has given to her attorney, Mr. Wilcox, who de-fended her at the trial. Mrs. Farmer has grown quite stout in prison and the prison physicians report that she is greatly improved in health. A

Since Mrs. Place D. 1. Albany, March 29.—Not since Mrs. Martha Place was put to death in Sing Sing prison on March 20, 1899, has the state been called upon to electrocute a woman, and Mrs. Mary Farmer, who will go to the electric chair at Abuurn prison to-morrow, will be the second woman in the long list of those who have paid the death penalty by electro-cution.
