LOGAN, LINDSAY & CO., 78 and 80 King stree THE Catholic BIRTHDAY BOOK, MONGST a great number of Protestant publilications of this kind, this little work is got especially for Catholics. Instead of the literary quostations in the former, it contains a more useful and profitable selection of "Mottoes" and "Practices," chosen from the words of the Holy Fathers and other eminent spiritual writers. Otherwise the arrangement is the same as in the other Birthday Books. There is a Calendar indicating also the Feest, with blank space opposite to every day, where friends and acquaintances may be requested to inscribe their autographs under the date of their respective birthdays. Cloth $1.

Every one knows what an ordinary birthday book is like: each day of the year has a text of Holy Soripinre, a verse of a hymn, or something of the kind.
This is a similar book as to its plan and arrangement, but instead of the texts and hymns, there is for each day a short sentence from some Catholic Dector or writer, or a suggestion for "practice," rabbed the gun and aimed to shoot, but he son knocked the gun up and the ball went into the ceiling.

The young man then broke loose and ran for his life, the old man following to the steps over the yard fence and then turning toward the barn. The boy continued running until he had aroused some of the nearest neighbors, who hastily repaired to the scene.

Henrietta Straez, of Chicago, ate raw ham at a wedding a month ago and died, on Friday, of trichinosis in great agony. Forty thousand parasites were found in a square inch of one of her muscles. A number of other persons who partook of the ham showed evidence of the disease, but most of them have been relieved.
