

BORDEN TURNS DOWN FARMERS

Tells Them Emphatically That He Will Not Support Reciprocity

Brandon, June 20.—The Grain Growers of Manitoba met R. J. Borden, the opposition leader, this afternoon and presented him with their demands similar to those made to Sir Wilfrid Laurier. The main one was on reciprocity and was presented by J. Scollion, honorary president of the Grain Growers. Mr. Scollion made a strong speech in regard to the position of the farmers, asking for reciprocal trade with the United States and also an increase of the British preference to 50 per cent, gradually to be raised until there was free trade. He pointed out the growing demand of the United States and the increasing production of the west.

The resolution on the Hudson Bay railway was presented by R. J. Avison. J. S. Wood laid before the opposition leader the question of the tariff. Peter Wright presented to Mr. Borden the problem of terminating the tariff. Chilled meat trade needs, and the amendments desired to the railway act were laid before Mr. Borden by R. M. Wilson.

Mr. Scollion in presenting the claims of the grain growers in regard to reciprocity spoke as follows:

Mr. Scollion's address.

"This delegation, representing the organized farmers of Manitoba, desires to thank you for affording us this opportunity of meeting you and presenting to you personally our views and desires regarding the enactment of certain measures of legislation which we consider of vital importance to the development and prosperity of the agricultural industry of this country, and to the great body of the common people. The farmers of Canada have been in favor of such legislation for some time. When the premier visited the west last summer the farmers placed their demands in that regard clearly and strongly before him. They followed up that action by sending a large delegation representing the agricultural interests of Canada to Ottawa to present these demands, which we regard our bill rights to the government and parliament of this country. Today we present that bill of rights to you, sir, the leader of the opposition and prospective leader of the government, and strongly urge you to use your influence as a leader and the weight of your following in parliament, to have every one of these measures set forth in that bill of rights enacted into law.

Reduction in Tariff

We demand a reduction in our protective tariff, which is not only a burden on the agricultural industry of this country, and the great body of consumers of protected commodities, but is also a burden on the tax to meet the public expenditure of the dominion, but strongly protest against being taxed for the special benefit of private interests. Such a tariff is not only unjust and oppressive in its operations, but is dangerous and insidious in its tendency to corrupt public life, and secure legislation in the interests of privileged classes, as against the interests of the people. Our protective tariff has become a breeding ground for mergers and trusts, combinations organized for the purpose of killing competition and fixing prices charged the consumers of protected commodities, prices made for the purpose of paying dividends on capitalizations of industries that in many cases are half water. Such conditions can only exist under the shelter of the protective tariff, which is nothing short of a license to practice grand larceny on the people. We demand the enactment of a fiscal system that in the matter of taxation is just to every public and private interest in this country and that will entirely abolish special privileges.

Free Competition Fixes Prices

The products of our farms, when exported, are sold in the markets of the world where prices are fixed by free competition, and the export prices fix the prices for home consumption, while the supplies for our farms are purchased in a restricted market, where prices are fixed by methods already mentioned. That is not a square deal, and we demand that such restrictions be removed. We strongly urge that the British preference be increased to twenty per cent. of our general tariff, and gradually be increased from year to year until free trade with Britain is established at farthest within ten years.

"We are strongly in favor of, and will continue to press for the widest possible measure of reciprocal trade with the United States. Such a measure was pressed for when the premier was in the west in the summer, and it was demanded by the delegation representing the farmers of Canada at Ottawa last December. We not only respect, but we wish to record our entire disapproval of the tactics resorted to in parliament to frustrate the passage of that measure, and force a dissolution of parliament before a redistribution measure could be passed, which would give the west fair play in parliamentary representation. We have studied the question of reciprocity with the United States, more especially with regard to the hearing on the present and future agricultural interests of our country for its present form it deals almost entirely with the natural products of both countries, and is therefore largely a farmers' question.

Mr. Scollion went on to review the whole question exhaustively. Other resolutions were likewise fully responded.

Mr. Borden's Reply.

Mr. Borden in his reply thanked the grain growers for the welcome extended and appreciated the opportunity of meeting for the first time in person and ascertaining by discussion and submission of views what is the best interest of Canada. He felt compelled to him and he felt more like the prime minister now than he ever did before. Referring to Mr. Borden's statement regarding expressing his views in Winnipeg, he said sometimes

CANADA NOW A STRONG NATION

This is Opinion of Senator Gallagher in U. S. Upper House

Washington, June 20.—The statement in the senate by Senator Gallagher of Idaho that "whatever has been taken from England has been taken at the point of the bayonet" produced the only tense moment of today's short debate on the bill, which was introduced by Senator Hebrun, which he later explained extended only to governmental acquisitions, was challenged by Senator Bacon of Georgia as a grave matter in view of the pending arbitration negotiations with England. He said that the bill was a great amount of work this summer.

Senator Gallagher brought on the controversy by asking if this nation did not owe more to England, in the Northern News of Friday last, and written by Mr. G. R. Greer, which Mr. Pratt claims is damaging his character. The case was tried on Tuesday before Supl. Sander, who sent the defendant to stand trial before a supreme court judge, and was allowed on the defendant's own bond and two other sureties.

WOMEN'S COUNCIL KEEN DEBATE

Case of Woman Under Sentence of Death is Discussed.

Fort William, June 19.—The National Council of Women in session this afternoon discussed the case of Anselma Napitana, under sentence of death.

A resolution was passed that the Minister of Justice, be petitioned for clemency and an interesting debate followed in which an absolute pardon was advocated. There were several theories put forth why this woman should not suffer the extreme penalty, chief of which was her condition at the time the crime was committed. Others asked if the crime could not wait and see whether the sentence of the court would be carried out. There was one bitter discussion on Montreal, who objected to the council placing itself on record as interfering with constitutional authority, and then the debate became interesting, several of the delegates trying to speak at the same time but in the midst of it a motion to adjourn for luncheon was carried.

Then again after luncheon the question of the woman under sentence of death was brought to notice and after resolution had followed resolution it was found that the council did not wish to go on record as seeking an absolute pardon and Mrs. Leathes declared that it was because certain of women were mothers that they asked for the ballot.

Miss Hildred spoke on the business of the international council which meets in Sweden this year. Then there was a discussion on the disposal of car books and Mrs. Stead, Halifax, thought that in forcing the sale of the car books, the prestige of the local councils would be weakened. There was a bitter discussion on the number of books to be sent out and to whom they should be sent. The Toronto council suggested that each council should solicit advertisements for the year book but it was determined that local councils should not solicit for these advertisements unless they desired to do so.

Mr. Scollion's address.

"In closing his address Mr. Borden regretted he had not agreed with all the questions that was before him, but it was his misfortune not his fault that they did not appeal to him. If it should be the will of the people of Canada to empower him with the responsibility of forming a government and if after government would retire from public life.

FILES CLAIM AGAINST THE OTTAWA JOURNAL

W. J. R. Preston Seeks $5,000 Damages for Alleged Libel. From Editor of the Ottawa Journal, Him Founder of Anasnia Club.

Ottawa, June 16.—The statement of a claim in the action of W. J. R. Preston against the Ottawa Journal and its editor, P. D. Ross, for alleged libel, has been filed. In details that an commissioner in Netherlands Mr. Preston got Dutch capitalists interested in a company to deal in western farm land mortgages. This news was received by one of the proposed directors discouraging to the operations of the company and which caused certain men interested to withdraw. Mr. Preston wrote an official letter to the Department of Trade and Commerce regarding it and on being authorized to investigate, wrote a letter to the effect that the proposed statements had come from Sir Charles Fitzpatrick. Sir Charles wrote an official letter denying it and Mr. Preston wrote a letter claiming that he believed his information that such statements had been made by Sir Charles. The Ottawa Journal in its editorial said: "The Ottawa Journal is the most recent Canadian to be honored by inclusion in the W. J. R. Preston Anasnia Club, which, at one time or another, has included many prominent Canadians in whichever countries he has also minor branches in South Africa, Japan, the Netherlands, and wherever this extraordinary Canadian founder has set foot. Perhaps this latest action, in various countries, for years have pointed the way." The claim makes no mention of the "Anasnia Club" and the fact that Mr. Preston is untrustworthy and not worthy of confidence. Further, it is claimed that Mr. Preston is a holder of a patent in various countries in which he has been public service and that the editorial suggests that the editor is a public servant and that the editor is a public servant and that the editor is a public servant.
