To-Day's Messages.

WAR BOND PURCHASES.

LONDON, Feb. 14.
(Via Reuter's Ottawa Agency.)—
The House of Commons Rt. Hon. A.
Barnard, Chancellor of the Exchequer, stated that to the end of last year £252,000,000 sterling of war bonds had been sold. He had adopted the system of continuous borrowing as a substitute for a loan and now had every hope it would be successful.

COMMONS QUESTION APPOINT- MENT.

LONDON, Feb. 14.
(Via Reuter's Ottawa Agency.)—
The House of Commons, P. Alben, Liberal member for Tottenham, asked what were the special specifications of Lord Beaverbrook for the position of Minister of Propaganda: Why was he linked up with the Chancellorship of the Duchy of Lancaster, and what was the former office affected with the duties of the latter? The Prime Minister offered Lord Beaverbrook the appointment because he thought he would do the work successfully. Lord Beaverbrook is not a member of the War Cabinet. A. F.
Poyne, Liberal member for Perth shired, stated that the appointment was a complete disaster. Mr. Bonar Law replied, that "perhaps Mr.
Poyne is a better judge of that than I am."

ROOSEVELT BETTER.

NEW YORK, To-day.
Old Theodore Roosevelt has so far recovered from recent operations that he is able partly to sit up.

NO ACTION TAKEN.

MADRID, To-day.
A ministerial council was held last night to discuss the sinking of the Spanish steamer Cefiro which recently was sent to the bottom by a German submarine near Ferro Island, one of the Canary group. The ministers decided to seek more information regarding sinking of ships, and no new vote will be sent to Germany until the facts are more clearly known.
The Cabinet decided that henceforth all Spanish ships must carry war insurance and must be limited to coastwise traffic.

NOT UNANIMOUS.

AMSTERDAM, To-day.
The German papers, Berlin Tageblatt, Vossische Zeitung, Vorwaerts, Kölnischer Anzeiger, Frankfurter Zeitung, Rheinische Zeitung and Werer Zeitung all agreed, have printed President Wilson's address in full. The Köln-ische Volks Zeitung, Rheinische Westfälische Zeitung and Dusseldorfer Nachrichten have printed abridged versions. The Kölnische Volks Zeitung addresses President Wilson a warm editorial longer than the sum-ward peace, but it regrets it is not a just peace.

RUSH TO REGISTER.

NEW YORK, To-day.
Virtually every unassimilated German in Greater New York registered during the enemy alien registration period ended at 10 o'clock last night.
It was announced by U. S. Marshal McCarthy last night. Corrected figures show that 39,864 appeared before the registrars and that all but 632 were finger printed.

UKRAINE RADA REMOVED.

AMSTERDAM, To-day.
Vienna papers report that the Ukranian Rada has removed its sittings to Zhitomir, the capital of the province of Volhynia, 80 miles southwest of Kiev, and has established direct communication with the Central Powers.

GERMAN GENEROSITY.

AMSTERDAM, To-day.
The first subject for discussion by Chancellor Von Hertling and Foreign Secretary Von Kuehlmann on their visit to Emperor William at General Healquarters, the Vorwaerts, Berlin, says, it understands, will be the declaration of the independence of Lithuania, and according to that paper, a proclamation to this effect will be issued almost immediately. The Lithuanians are another of the peoples along Germany's eastern border which the Central Powers are attempting to constitute into a series of buffer states. The Lithuanians, numbering about 2,000,000, are found mainly in the Russian governments of Koono Vilna, Grodno and Suwalki, North Poland.

JOFFRE HONORED.

PARIS, To-day.
Marshal Joffre, former Commander-in-Chief of the French armies, was today elected a member of the French Academy by 22 votes out of a possible 29. Six members were absent. One vote cast was blank.

TUSCANY WAS TORPEDOED.

LONDON, To-day.
Thos. MacNamara, Secretary of the Admiralty, announced in the Commons to-day that it had been established that the steamer Tuscany was torpedoed. He added that the Admiralty was satisfied with the system of convoy.

SAVAGE WITH WILSON.

AMSTERDAM, To-day.
As was to be expected, the industrial organs of Western Germany savagely comment on President Wilson's address. The Rheinische Westfälische Gazette, under the caption of "Wilson-poisoner," says they are talking to save their necks. Wilson and Lloyd-George with toothless anger and with lawyers' tricks are trying to humbug their deluded peoples. It is impossible to take President Wilson seriously. Assuming a haughty com-tempt, this paper proceeds to prove to its own satisfaction that President Wilson failed in what it terms were his three objects, namely to hearten the British with tales of inexhaustible American resources, to try and split Austria and Germany and to play off the Reichstag majority against the military party. President Wilson has had no luck, the paper continues. We can tell him that complete accord has just been arrived between Germany and Austria-Hungary, the effects of which will become patent ere long.
This paper concludes by enumerating all the misdeeds the United States has committed against Germany and Spain and sundry South American Republics. The Dusseldorfer Nachrichten says, after reading the address we have given up hope that our readers will be able to make head or tail of what President Wilson really wants.
He never has spoken more vaguely or confusely and the only thing clear is that by flattering Count Czernin, the Austro-Hungarian Foreign Minister, he wants to isolate Germany and then isolate all the strong forces in Germany. President Wilson's address doesn't mitigate the Versailles declaration as one in which he blas-phemously invokes divine judgment.
That judgment already has spoken and our soil is enemy free. While the Czar and four other kings eat bread in cattle, we, free in the east shall settle the rest in the west.

BERLIN ADMITS LOSS.

On the battle fronts in France fighting activity between British and French and Germans assumed somewhat violent proportions on at least two sectors, with forces of Field Marshal Haig and General Petain the aggressors. Probably the heaviest encounter was in Champagne region, where aided by the American batteries, which gave the French very effective help, the French captured and organized German trenches southwest of the Butte-du-Mesnil. The German official report admits the loss of this ground. North of Lens, the famous mining region, British and Germans again have met in a sharp encounter but no details of it have yet come through. Artillery activity continues heavy on numerous sectors from Flanders to the Swiss border.

Mention of American artillerymen as being engaged with the French armies against the Germans in Champagne, is the first indication that the United States forces were in battle line elsewhere than east of St. Mihiel, which is miles distant from the Champagne front. Presumption is that American artillerymen are training with the French preparatory to joining their comrades in their own sector. Unofficial despatches still indicate that in German and Austrian circles there is a very considerable distrust of the Bolshevik leaders in Russia, and that preparations even are in the making for stemming surprise manoeuvre on the East Front. One Bavarian paper asserts that final conference between Bolshevik and German and Austrian peace delegates at Brest-Litovsk ended in violent rupture which bore all the seed of a future conflict. In a manifesto to his subjects dealing with peace effected with Ukraine, Austrian Emperor reiterated his desire for an early peace.

PASSED WITHOUT DIVISION.

LONDON, To-day.
Through adoption to-night by the House of Commons of the address in reply to the speech from the Throne, which was accomplished without division, attacks against the Government for time being have come to naught.
To-day's debate was on various subjects including a resolution on peace and diplomacy. All hostile amendments against the Premier's address were either withdrawn or rejected.

MUCH ADO ABOUT NOTHING.

AMSTERDAM, To-day.
The Austrian Emperor has issued from Vienna the following manifesto:
"To my Peoples—Thanks to God's gracious aid we have concluded peace with the Ukraine. Our victorious arms and sincere peace policy which we pursued with indefatigable perseverance have shown the first fruit of a defensive war waged for our preservation. In common with my hard-tired peoples I trust that after the first conclusion of a peace which is so satisfying an event for us, general peace will soon be granted to suffering humanity. Under the impression of this peace with Ukraine, our glance turns with full sympathy to that aspiring young people in whose heart, first amongst our opponents the feeling of neighborly love has broken, operative, and which after the bravery exhibited in numerous battles also, possessed sufficient resoluteness to give expression by deed before the whole world, to its better convictions.
It thus have been the first to leave the camp of our enemies in order that in the interest of the speediest possible attainment of a new and great common aim to unite its efforts with our strength. Having from the first moment I mounted the throne of my exalted forefathers, felt myself one with my peoples in rock-like resolve to fight out the struggle forced upon us and an honorable peace was reached—I feel myself so much more united with them in this hour, in which the first step has now been taken for a realization of this aim, that with admiration for, and affection at, the recognition of the almost superhuman sacrifice of my heroic troops as well as of those at home who daily show no less self-sacrifice, I look forward with full confidence to a speedy and happy future. May the Almighty bless us further with strength and endurance, that not only for ourselves and our faithful Allies, but also for the entire cause of humanity, we may attain a final peace."

Death of Mr. Frank H. Arnaud.

The death occurred at Folkestone, England, on the 11th instant, of Mr.
Frank H. Arnaud, a gentleman well known in St. John's. He was the first manager in this city of the Royal Bank of Canada when it was established after the great failure of 1894, and under his careful and skilful control it did much, with the other Canadian banks, to restore confidence and credit in the country. On his retirement from the bank he removed to England, where he resided since. Mrs.
Arnaud, who was so well known in social and theatrical circles here, is a daughter. The late E. de B. Arnaud, for several years Canadian Trade Commissioner in St. John's, was an elder brother, and Mesdames Gordon and Alec Winter are nieces. Many old friends and acquaintances will learn with sorrow of Mr. Arnaud's passing.

The boy who was lying on a "clipper" across Duckworth Street and as he did passed between an east bound street car and a horse that was going west. Those who were standing near were startled at the incident as only by a miracle did the lad escape.

While it is only natural for children to play sliding, parents should warn them to avoid running into danger.
