Lt.-Col. Franklin.

Capt Williams, Quartermaster of the Church Lads' Brigade, had a letter usterday from Lieut.-Col. Franklin. yesterday from Lieut.-Col. Franklin.
D.S.O., an old officer of the C.L.B.
Colonel Franklin writes very optimistically, although his wound is not yet healed, he is able to walk now about a mile with the aid of a crutch and stick, and without a splint, though one leg is slightly short and his knee practically stiff. He hopes it will come right in time and trusts to be fit for light duty soon and even hopes to be yet in the firing line. Another old C.L.B. officer called to see him recently, Capt. Waring Hayward, now serving the Empire in the "Duke of Connaught's Own," a Canadian Regiment. Capt. Hayward has also been badly wounded but has made a remarkable recovery and his wounds are healed. He is not lame, but his leg has been so shattered as to, in all are healed. He is not lame, but his leg has been so shattered as to, in all probability, prevent him having the pleasure of another "go at the Hun." Both officers send kindest regards to all ranks in the Brigade and in memory of old times at the Topsail camp (Coloney Franklin going into the sea on crutches) had a glorious swim at Torquay, where Col. Franklin is a convalescent at Lady Layland-Bar-ratt's Hospital.

Back From Asia.

Among yesterday's express passeners was Mrs. R. H. Pinsent, who has just returned from far away Japan. Mrs. Pinsent is a daughter of the late Mr. N. March, and sister of Major J. W. March, M.C. After spending a ath here with relatives, Mrs. Pinmonth here with relatives, Mrs. Pinsent will go to London, Ontario, and thence, possibly back to the foreign mission field. Seven years ago, Mrs. Pinsent returned to Newfoundland from Japan, and instead of taking the usual Pacific route, crossed Siberia, Europe and the Atlantic Ocean.

C.C.C. BAND CONCERT-The C.C.C. band will give its final concert in Ban-nerman Park at 8 o'clock this evenng. Owing to unfavourable weather, he series of band coccerts have been financial failures, and the debt due on the new hall is not yet wiped off. It is haped that this evening's concert will be well attended so as to coun-terbalance the failures of former ones.
