End of Season Clearance Sale.

The Summer Season is nearing an end, and we have a few lines left over which we must clear out at once to make room for New Goods soon to arrive.

GIRLS' WASH DRESSES.

1	White	Voiles,	Coloured	Ging	hams,
			Dresses.
	7 0	1 101	# ET		00

кедшаг	9	1.10	Ior				• •	ooc.
Regular	$	3.70	for		•••	••	$	2.96
Regular	$	5.60	for	• •			$	4.48
Regular	$	9.00	for				$	7.20
Regular	$1	5.00	for				$1	2.00

CHILDREN'S ROMPERS.

Regular	80c. for	. 64c.
	90c. for
	$1.25 for

Windows Prices Slashed to Vanishing Point Windows

This is a Splendid Opportunity to Purchase Summer Goods at Big Savings.

BOYS' WASH SUITS.

Reg.	$1.45	for		.$1	.16
Reg.	$1.70	for		.$1	.36
Reg.	$2.45	for	• •1 •	.$1	96
Reg.	$4.20	for	: .	.$3	.36

TAFFETA, GEORGETTE AND TEL-Reg. $22.00 for ... $17.60

Action of the Control	Reg.	$33.00 $47.00	for	$26.40
- American	Reg.	$47.00	for	$37.60
Section Section	Reg.	$63.00	for	$50.40

LADIES' SILK DRESSES. LADIES' WASH SKIRTS.

Reg. $	2.20	for	$1.76
Reg. $	4.20	for	$3.36
Reg. $	6.20	for	$4.96
			$9.12

1
200
	*	*

LADIES' WHITE VOILE DRESSES.

Regular $ 9.00 for	$ 7.20
Regular $17.00 for	$13.60
Regular $19.90 for	$15.90
Regular $26.00 for	$20.80

LADIES' COLORED COTTON, GING-

i	HAM and tome discount.
ì	Regular $ 4.40 for$ 3.52
54/3/2	Regular $ 6.70 for $ 5.36
	Regular $11.80 for 9.46
	Regular $17.00 for $13.60
25/53	Regular $24.00 for

BISHOP, SONS & CO., Ltd. St. John's.

Secrets of the Admiralty.

REVELATIONS OF A NAVAL CENSOR.

pe of better news coming along. That seemed to be the policy of the miralty during the war, judging by revelations of Admiral Sir Doug-Browning, Bart, in his book, "Inral was Chief Censor at the Adgralty, and in his book he reveals battle of Jutland was held up for ch of the truth concerning how the three days in this country, although olic was kept in the dark at times. it was common knowledge in pracwish," he says, "I could have told tically every other part of the world.

threatened and browbeat him to had been defeated, and that kind of ich an extent that the First Lord thing did not do us any good." lowed himself to be turned away ell let the matter out."

The Battle of Jutland. An amazing picture of Mr. Churhill is presented by Sir Douglas in of ten English men and women s references to the Dardanelles mpaign, during which the First ord did the censoring himself. Sir ouglas took Mr. Churchill the cables 9.15 a.m., and "he presented a most Shoes.—aug6,tf

LOCAL

VEGETABLES:

CABBAGE,

CARROTS,

LETTUCE,

TURNIPS.

BEETS,

faction giv

New Grapes and

20 Kegs ALMERIA GRAPES.

Valencia Onions!

Ex S. S. "Sachem" from Liverpool, Aug. 13, '20:

50 Cases VALENCIA ONIONS-5's.

in a hugh bed, with the whole of the Franz Liszt. counterpane littered with despatchboxes, red and all colours, and stenographer sitting at the foot-Mr. Churchill himself with an enormous cigar in his moth, a glass of warm water on the table by his side, and a writing-pad on his knee. . . . On one occasion he had a badly swollen face, and, with two turns of a flannel bandage round it and a scanty lock escaping here and there, presented a truly extraordinary picture." As an illustration of the extraordinary methods of the Admiralty it is mentioned that the account of the

"Our ports were full of damaged He makes the startling confession ships and the hospitals were full of at Mr. Winston Churchill had made wounded men, and the Germans had his mind to admit that the Audac- got away with their fairly complete as had been sunk in a German story of the battle through their ne-field on October 17, 1914, a few wireless to every country in the eks after the event. "But just as world except these islands," says Sir was about to go out of the Admir- Douglas. "As it was, some American

Not only this, but "officers and men om his intended course. At no sub- were wiring to their friends saying quent date could I induce anybody they were all right. . . On this oc agree with me that we might as casion messages of the nature indicated were held up for inquiry before The First Lord was a bit of a gamb- being sent on. It was at once dei.e., he would hold on to a bit of cided, however, that the numberad news for a time on the chance of about 6,000—being so enormous it was etting a bit of good news as an offset, and I must say," continued the Ad-"that it not infrequently came that there had really been a battle, and sent out the famous report on the evening of June 2 (the battle was fought on May 31) which to nine out > quote Sir Douglas's phrase. Smallwood's Big Shoe Sale is a sale of High Grade Boots and

Green Canadian Cab-

New Tinned Lobster.

New Tinned Salmon.

Fresh Tomatoes.

New Lemons. Libby's Prepared

Mustard.

bage. Squashberries.

New Salt Fish.

'came as a frightful staggerer"-to

Lothario and "Saint".

Weekly.)

Of Franz Liszt, the great planist and composer, it has been said that beautiful daughter of the Comtesse "his nature consisted of uneven proportions of demon and angel." Under one influence he yearned for the life of the Church-"to live," as he declared. "the life of the saints and perhaps even to die the death of a martyr." Under the other, he would plunge into dissipation, flinging elementary decency to the winds in his pursuit of shameless pleasure; or, in his more restrained mood, flaunt in the face of the world his amour with another man's wife.

It was from his mother that he drew his strain of piety and asceticism: from his father. Prince Esterhazy's steward, he derived his passion door," says Sir Douglas, "he was papers, in fact, on the German state." From neither did he draw the power by Lord Fisher, who cajoled ment, assumed that the Grand Fleet to control his ill-balanced nature less emphasized by the fact that from the cradle to the grave he was the spoilt child of Fortune

The "Heaven-child."

In his early childhood he is described as beautiful, with an almost unearthly beauty-with delicate features, mysterious blue eyes, and a wealth of golden hair, framing his face like a picture. And to this physical dower he added a winsomeness none could resist. He was the "Heaven-child." loved, almost worshipped, from his infancy by all who

He was but ten years old when his amazing gift of piano-playing electrified his native Hungary. After his first concert at Presburg, we are told, the ladies rushed to the platform to smother the wonder-boy with caresses. Prince Esterhazy placed his palace at his disposal, and half a dozen Hungarian noblemen subscribed on the spot a sum sufficient to pay for his musical training for six years.

The next year, in 1882, he swept Vienna off her feet on the tide of a wild enthusiasm. Beethoven himson amid a scene of delirious excitement; and those great masters of music Czerny and Salieri, begged to be allowed to teach him for nothing. Thus early was the Hungarian boy surrounded with a homage and adulation calculated to turn a much better-

And when, in 1824, he went to Paris, he became "by a leap" the idol of the French capital. At his first con cert in the Italian Opera House, the members of the orchestra were so carried away by his playing of a solo passage in the Hummel concerto that they forgot to come in at the proper "Orpheus touched the beast o the field and moved the stones, but the little Liszt," to quote a chron icler, "so affected the orchestra tha it became dumb." And each year that passed added to Franz's laurels until all Europe was ringing with the fame of the "eighth wonder of the

But Liszt grew surfeited with such clatry. His instinctive yearning for e religious life became so clamorous that he implored his father with tears and supplications to allow him to become a priest and renounce the

"Thy calling is music," was his stern answer. "The Church is not for thee." And though he rebelled fiercely, it was not long before thoughts! of the Church took wing before his first passion, when he lost his heart to one of his pupils, Caroline, the de Saint-Cricq. To the young musician this was the opening of a new and wonderful world; for his love was returned, and the Comtesse smiled on his suit. Then followed a few months of Paradise for the young lovers, when life took on the glories of Heaven; but these glories were fated to an early eclipse, for the Comtesse died, and her husband, who did not approve of the match, put his foot resolutely down and insisted on his daughter marrying a man of

In the bitterness of his disappointment Liszt abandoned himself to alike for music and for errant love. grief. He shut himself out from the grief. He shut himself out from the world, spent long days and nights fasting, meditating, and reading relife of the cloister," had not his mother, with tears and pleadings, per-suaded him to change his mind. Then followed an illness so serious that a report of his death was circulated, and report of his death was circulated, and the press of Europe deplored the tragic closing of a life so full of the highest promise. But liszt was not dead. He fought his way bravely back to life; and we see him alternating feverish practice at the piano with nights of shameless orgy. For many years, we are told, he led a life of "shocking immorality," at which the world of his admirers only smiled indulgently; the women especially "affecting to judge him as though he were a king whose divine right placed him above

The Moths and the Flame. In extenuation of Liszt's many irregularities, it should be said that few men have ever been so tempted, or more temperamentally weak to re sist temptation. Wherever he went moral laws."

foolish women "flew into the blaze of his attraction as moths fly into a And so it was with Liszt almost to women, though he had ceased to worship at their shrine. But Lothario remained to the end, in spite of their The Sugar Saver mong cereal foods

No added sweetening needed You'll like the appealing flavor of this sugar-saving food. SOLD BY GROCERS

EVERYWHERE

Our Mid-Summer Sale Continues!

We have decided to continue above Sale for another month, as we want to clean up all surplus stock before fall arrivals. New lines being added every day. We list a few more specials.

Bed Outfits.

HERE IS WHERE WE SHINE.
edstead, 3 ft., Spring, 3 ft., Mattress, 3 ft., only edstead (4 ft., Bross Nobs), Spring (Woven Wire), Mattress (Wool - Top), only$19.45
edsteads (Brass Rod), Spring (Copper Wire), Mattress (Wool all over), only$25.95
ther Outfits up to$50.00
ur Extra Special is a late arrival Bedstead, Spring & Mattress for$25.00
Worth $25.00 or more Open for inspection Monday or Tuesday

Worth $35.00 or more. Open for inspection Monday or We still have a few Couches, Bureaus and Stands, Sideboards, &c., that we offer at lowest prices to clear. Come and be convinced. Outport orders receive special attention for these goods. Same all ready for delivery.

The C.L. March Co., Ltd.

Corner Water and Springdale Streets. P.S.—CARS STOP AT OUR DOOR.

Pussy's Adventures.

Admiral Beatty tells an interesting story regarding the ship's cat on the his last day, long years after he had Lion. During the Jutland battle the been dubbed Abbegy Cardinal Ho- Happily, the invalids had been rethe church was powerless to shield sight, the cat, who lived in the bay, had been left behind.

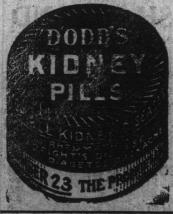

General grief was expressed by the crew at the loss of the cat, but greathad turned "Saint," and a "Saint" he ly to the surprise of the men told off by five little meeows. Puss had hid- have kept herself alive by licking the den away on a shelf, and had signalized the battle by giving birth to five kittens, who are now distributed throughout the Navy.

Another cat story is told by Captain Llewellyn of the S.S. Nalders One of the ships which he con a mine. In a rough sea all the passengers, some 500 in number, were safely taken off in boats.

of the wreck, the captain noticed one of the ship's cats floating on a mailbag. He shouted to the officer is charge of the boat nearest the cat to have her taken on board, but ascer-tained some days after that this had not been done, as before the expl had made her savage, and the officer in charge of the boat had, therefore deemed it unsafe to act on the cap-days and twenty hours after the sinkentered the Franciscan Order and sick bay was shattered by a shell. ing of the ship, the cat and the mailbag were washed ashore. The cat, henlohe, in 1865. Even the aegis of moved beforehand, but, by an over- although thin and feeble, was still active and comparatively well. Her tongue had healed, and she is now installed as head cat on a pleasur yacht, the owner of which had heard of her marvellous escape. Rain fell to clear away the debris, a good heavily during some prt of the twentyhealthy meeow was heard, followed four days, and the cat is supposed to

MINARD'S LINIMENT RELIEVES GARGET IN COWS.

lays, and the cat is supposed to have kept herself alive by licking the water

FRESH, DAILY

194 Water St. West (Opp. Gas Works) and

120 Duckworth St.

PASTRIES. FANCY CAKES

BROWN BREAD.

SPECIAL: Almond Bars. Short Bread. Meringues.

Duckworth Street & Queens' Road

C. P. EAGAN,