"He, She, Him, Her."
The comedy with the above name was presented at the Grand Opera House last night to a fair audience, but the enthusiasm aroused could scarcely have been greater had the place been jammed. George H.
Adams, as Toby Perivinkle, a country lad, makes a exceedingly clever grotesque comedian. He uses his remarkable facial expressions to advantage, and also performs acrobatic feats that show wonderful agility.

The little Adams girls took their parts splendidly, the soprano work of little Tonina being very creditable. J. L.
Guilmette, as Otto Schwartz, Andy Morris, a silent man, and William Dickson, as the villain, all did well. The comedy is one of the best ever produced here, and contains many surprising and altogether original jokes.

A Tablet at Galt.
Appropriate to the jubilee of Trinity Parish, a very handsome brass tablet has just arrived from London, England, and was put in place on the chancel wall by the vestry. The tablet bears the following inscription:

Sacred to the Memory of VERY REVEREND MICHAEL BOOMER, LL.D., And First Rector of Trinity Church, Galt, Who died 1888,
Aged 75 years.

Erected by the Vestry of the Parish in which he resided, and on the site of his home.

Mrs. Boomer presented to the congregation a handsomely-framed and life-like portrait of the late Dean. It was on exhibition at the Galt Hotel last Monday evening, and was carefully inspected by the large gathering present. Suitable reference was made to it by the clergy present.

It is an admirable portrait, well executed, and reflects great credit on the artist, Mr.
Rollison, of London, Ont. It will be left in the vestry of the church, and will, no doubt, always be an inspiration to the clergy.—(Galt Reporter.)

Class Stewart Instituted.
Clan Stewart, No. 76, of the order of Scottish Clans, was instituted at St. Thomas last evening by Deputy Royal Chief Fairgrieve, of this city, assisted by the following visiting clannemen: Chief Gray, of Clan Fraser, London, acting as past chief; Tantist Head, of Clan Sutherland, Woodstock, as taniist; James J. W. Jones, Secretary Hunter, Junior Henchman J. G.
Jones, Seneschal J. A. Gray, Warden Mc-Rae and Sentinel Robertson, of Clan Fraser, filling respectively the offices of chaplain, senior and junior benchmen, Clanmen Scott, Rankin and Baird, of Clan Sutherland, occupied the offices of secretary, financial secretary and treasurer respectively. The meeting was highly favored by the presence of the royal chief of the whole order in America, Mr. Jas.
Sutherland, M.P., of Woodstock, who, after the ceremony of institution had been completed, made a neat address on the duties of clannemen. Much enthusiasm was shown, and at the hour of opening proceedings the already large list of names on the charter roll had been swelled to the number of 67. Besides these many other, some long past the limit of age for admission, were present, and were pleased to be admitted as honorary members. Great praise is due to Chief Stewart, Past Chief Mc-Crimmon and Taniist McAdam for the great interest shown. Other visitors present were Hon. Clannmen Reid, Reid, sen., Piper, Angus and Milne, of Clan Fraser, and Clannmen Roderick McLellan and Piper C. Sutherland, of Clan Sutherland.
The formal closing of the meeting, being conducted by Chief Stewart, consisted of a reply to a speech extended his clan's hospitality to the visiting clans.
He also expressed his pleasure at being able to comment on the kindly assistance rendered them by the formation of the new clan by Deputy Royal Chief Fairgrieve.
Replies were made by Hon. Clannmen Reid and Fairgrieve for the clan, being followed by the song "When the Kye Comes Home," by Clannmen Carrie, of St.
Thomas, after which Clannmen Head and Scott replied for Clan Sutherland. Clannmen Rankin, of Clan Sutherland, then rendered in his splendid style several Scotch songs, after which Royal Chief Sutherland addressed the board on the objects of the order, dealing particularly with the advantages to be gained by Scotchmen and their descendants by identifying themselves with an order such as a Scottish clan. The formation of and organizing of clans were words of love, as not even the expenses of those interesting themselves in such work are allowed. A few remarks from Chief Stewart, the singing by the visiting clans "For the Jolly Good Fellow," three rousing cheers and a tiger for Royal Chief Sutherland and the other royal officers, the singing of "Auld Lang Syne" and "God Save the Queen," brought to a close the proceedings of what was the most enthusiastic and successful institution of any clan under the order.

VOICES OF THE PEOPLE.Canada and the States.

To the Editor of the ADVERTISER: I am called upon to decide a wager based partly upon your article (clipping annexed) of Saturday on Wiman:

It is a rather startling fact that Canada, comprising 40 per cent. of the British Empire, contains a larger area than the United States.
As I once in Peterboro decided a similar bet, to the effect that the area of the United States was larger than the area of Canada, for Alaska was not such a portion of the area of the former as is the Indian Territory, and finding no authority to alter my opinion, the sporting gentlemen pray an appeal to you.

Taking our authority from the Dominion Handbook, we find that "Canada has an area of 3,470,257 square miles, or, including its water surface, 3,610,000 square miles." Walker's Statistical Atlas of the United States states that the area of that country is 3,026,494 square miles (exclusive of lakes and river surfaces bounding the republic or the single states); Alaska's area, 577,000—total area of the United States territory 3,603,884.—(EDITOR ADVERTISER.)

Mr. W. L. Judson's superb collection of pictures, now on exhibition at his resiremoved to Toronto. Mr. Judson's pictures are making a great hit in Chicago, judging from the favorable press comments of that city. Londoners should see to it that some of his best things remain in London.
