Temperance Effort - Success of Foresters' Concert.

Gleaners, a company of temperance evangelists, commence a series of meetings at Union Hall. The company is composed of Mr. M. Wiltsie, Miss L. Wiltsie, and Miss Anna Neville, of Springfield, Ont. They come under the auspices of the Order of Royal Templars, and are highly recommended by temperance workers everywhere. They have been laboring ntly in Komoka and Dorchester, and from these places come the most encouraging reports. The Gleaners, at each meeting, will furnish an entertaining programme of picture, song and speech, with limelight illustrations. No doubt these meetings will be largely attended.
