SOMETHING EVERY PERSON MUST SEE

The entries for the Provincial Fat Stock and Dairy Show, which will be held on the Western Fair grounds, in this city, from Dec. 12 to 15, are now nearly all in, next Saturday being positively the last day on which they will be received, and then only on payment of double fees. It is now possible to state that the coming show will excel anything of the kind ever seen on this continent, every department, except perhaps the dressed poultry, being better filled than ever before. This jus-tifles the selection of London as the place where the show is to be held this year. Let our citizens turn out

THEIR THIRD ANNUAL BALL

Over One Hundred Couples Attend the Dance Given by the Metal-Polishers' and Brassworkers' Union.

The third annual ball of the local Metal Polishers', Buffers', Platers' and Brassworkers' Union was held last night in the city hall and was a very successful affair. Over one hundred couples attended and enjoyed the programme of the latest dances, 32 in number. The hall was prettily decorated, and music was furnished by Ensign's orchestra. Refreshments were served during the intermission at midnight. The success of the affair was largely due to the following gentlemen: F. C. Higman, chairman; J. R. Gray, secretary-treasurer; S. Taylor, floor manager; T. Kenny, E. Sanders, C. McFadden, reception committee; T. Terry, J. Carroll and F. Lyons, floor committee; H. Mallett, J. Partridge and H. Pepper, managing committee.

Union Man No. 2.

To the Editor of The Advertiser: No true man can but admire the stand you have taken in this, as well as in other matters. I see that my last shot has taken effect, and Union Man No. 2 is out with another effusion which savors Berlin, and from there proceeds to very much of brimstone. He is delight-his duties at London. He is a Clined and rejoices to hear that Union Men No. 1 are being crushed. It is plainly seen that he is making to himself friends of the mammon of unrighteousness. Hear him! He says: "What the country needs today is thousands of Mr. Everetts, or somebody else with their millions," so that one man could keep half a dozen Union Men No. 2 in a life of ease and luxury, and also pay their insurance. What the world needs today is Union Men No. 2, who "practice what they preach." It is not men with money that we need, but men converted to God, and not men who preach to their congregation to have faith in God and live a life of selfsacrifice; while they themselves have neither faith in God nor in the people, and are under a written contract, backed up by a body of responsible men, and have taken it out of God's hands entirely; and say: "We want "We want to be sure of what we're going to Union Man No. 2, great is thy have." faith! so self-sacrificing in travel, in food, in clothing, and in holicays: I asked him on what line of living he represented Jesus Christ and he says: "I make no attempt at answer ing Brother Brown's scurrilities." He knows that the only line in which he represents Jesus Christ is by "mouth." He advises me to "borrow" a copy of the Methodist discipline. How truly characteristic! I have a number of good books that Union Men No. 2 have borrowed, that I never expect to get back, and I venture the assertion that if Union Man No. 2 has a discipline. that he has either "borrowed" it, or one or two, that could not be sold, have been left over with him. I have no doubt he is better posted in the discipline than he is in the Bible. Who compiled the discipline? Union Man

No. 2. For whose interest? Union Man No. 2. How truthful his sentiment! Listen to him! "Union Man No. 2 has nothing to say as to his salary." He says: "The superannuated fund is not an insurance." I wonder if he can make any sane man believe it? He says he has never heard of a strike in this union. O! how ignorant and innocent! wonder if "Brother Richard" was at the Strathroy conference? I wonder If he was ever on a stationing commit-I sat at the quarterly board where the board did not see fit to raise two hundred dollars, and Union Man No. 2 said: "I am sold; I could have done better other places (and of course it was the truth). If I had known this I would have charged more for my moving expenses. I'll have it if the other funds have got to suffer.' And he struck, and the quarterly board willted and he got it. He sneers at a loyal Methodist; it pays him well to be loyal. He speaks of "such ignorance." Would to God I was more ignorant of some of the most selfish deeds known in history, done by some of Union Men No. 2. He says I have not spent enough to purchase a Methodist discipline. I have bought two or three in my lifetime and have one in the house at the present if some Union Man No. 2. has not "borrowed" it. He says there are plenty ZIMINITALIMINATION OF THE PARTY of Union Men No. 2 who are spending thousands of dollars to every five dollars of mine, but "Richard" is not one of them, and I'll give twenty-five dollars to any charitable purpose if "Brother Richard will point out one man in Union No. 2, or outside of it, who gives more, according to his means, than I do. But this charitable purpose must not be the "insurance fund."

He says I am always crying out about fat salaries. I have never in my life said aught against a Union Man No. 2 getting a fat salary, if he gave an equivalent for it; for the man who receives money and does not give an equivalent is a robber of the first water. He says: "I feel like asking how much are you giving toward these salaries?" But not like Paul, who said: "What wilt Thou have me to He said to one of these poor Union Men No. 1 (right to his face. Imagine the gall!), who, I suppose, had a large family, and who was struggling hard to make a living and to make ends meet: "Why it would take sixteen thousands like you to give me the salary I deserve; so that I could fare sumptuously every day, and go dressed in broadcloth, and ride on the comfortable cars. O! for a few men like Mr. Everett, with their millions. Then I'd take my holidays and go to Muskoka and fish; he'd pay my insurance." He says I am wide of the mark and I know it's not much of a mark either, and that I am either cross-eyed or near-sighted and cannot see afar off. I used to be both and what is troubling Union Man No. 2 is, see too much.

I read in a weekly paper that "Brother Richard" would not have his mouth closed; that nobody could shut his mouth but God. I was reading where pressure was brought to bear upon a dumb ass, and he spake with a man's voice. We will leave him in the hands of God, who may reverse the order of things.

"Brother Richard" says that any-body who has known him for the last twenty-five or thirty years, knows that he has been faithful to the union, though he had not the same ability as of the other Union Men No. 2, and has had enough sense not to expect so large a salary, as he could not give equal service, and I was reading the other day in the Bible when Christ was on the earth. He said to two of his disciples: "Go to a place where two ways meet; you will find an ass tied, loose him and bring him hither. If any man says aught, tell him that the Lord hath need of him." I don't know who did the losing, but if the Lord can use him I suppose the Winghamites will have to put up with him. And thanking you for your valuable space, dear Editor, I remain, J. BROWN.

"Animal food, unless mixed with at least four-fifths of vegetable products, is apt to produce irritable temper and chronic restlessness. Wherever experiments have succeeded in accustoming horses to a diet of flesh food, the results were attested by torn bridles and smashed stable doors. Carnivorous men begin to prowl to ease the feeling of gastric discomfort, and if de-prived of that remedy, become fretful and vindictive, especially when the causes of nervous derangements have been complicated by other stimulants.
