

--And the Worst Is Yet to Come

FISHERMEN WELL PLEASED WITH SEASON JUST CLOSED

Prices Were High and Catches Good—Nearly Forty Miles of Nets Were Left in Lake Huron Owing to Stormy Weather—Capt. McDonald and Sons Were Nearly Lost in Gale.

[Special to The Advertiser.] Kincardine, Nov. 4. — The fishing season has closed, and owing to the stormy weather the fishermen have been unable to lift their nets.

As far as can be learned there will probably be 30 or 40 miles of nets lying at the bottom of Lake Huron from this town, and as most of them will be in from 15 to 20 fathoms of water, there is a likelihood of some of them being badly torn, and severe storms do much injury, even at greater depths.

Well Satisfied.

The catch for the season has been good, and the prices high, selling at 10 cents per pound at the harbor.

The catch has been practically trout. One per cent will cover all other kinds caught. Whitefish are nearly as scarce as pickled.

Now the Government tries to save the spawn when near maturity, and the limit scattered over it, and sends these products to some of the hatcheries under Government control. Were it not for this effort to supply fry the lake would soon be depleted of trout.

At intervals a Government boat comes around and lets loose into Lake Huron and other bodies of water from one million to several millions of fry to replenish the over-fished waters.

Miles of Nets.

With many hundreds of miles of nets set out the whole summer, and only a few weeks of close season, beginning on the first day of November, the fish would soon disappear if they were not replaced.

For the two boats fishing here, the Government allows about 50 miles of net to be continuously set throughout the season. These are divided into gangs, making about five miles of net to lift for a steam fishing boat, such as John McGaw & Son own, and something less for a gasoline boat, such as Thomas McGaw uses.

This is an enormous labor and expense, to catch from 300 to 1,000 pounds at a haul.

One day the McGaw gang on the steam fishing boat lifted 2,200 pounds, but the fish had been left several days owing to the stormy weather.

As the steam fishing boat belonging to Capt. McDonald & Sons, of Southampton, was making for home after lifting their nets at the fishing islands yesterday, a severe gale nearly sent them to the bottom. They succeeded in making Southampton after losing ten or twelve hundred pounds of fish.

Capt. McDonald is a brother-in-law of the fishermen, John and Thos. McGaw, living here.

ACCIDENTALLY SHOT

Herbert Shannon Killed When Gun Discharged Unexpectedly.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Tamworth, Ont., Nov. 3.—While hunting near here yesterday, Herbert Shannon, the 18-year-old son of William Shannon, accidentally discharged his gun into his body, and he died a few minutes later. His companion ran to get assistance, but when the neighbors arrived they found the youth dead.

Toronto Had Two Serious Fires During Month of October.

[Canadian Press.]

Toronto, Nov. 4.—The fire damage for the month of October in Toronto was $97,311. The firemen were called to no less than 140 fires, the biggest loss at any of them being to the Granite Bank on Church street, where $50,000 damage was done, and Alexander & Cables' on Pearl street, where the loss was about $30,000. There were 13 false alarms, most of them on Halloween and 2 incendiary fires. At 67 of the calls there was no damage at all.

ERNIE MARK'S COMPANY PRESENTS "ISHMAEL"

Performance Is Satisfactory to Large Audience at the Grand.

"Ishmael," as presented by the Ernie Marks Stock Company at the Grand on Monday night, was a fair and pleasing performance.

Mr. Ernie Marks, as Reuben Gray, played the time-honored part of the uncouth but noble and generous country overlord in a quite satisfactory manner. Mr. H. Webb Chamberlain as Ishmael, is an actor of a fair order of merit. Miss Lida Gardner, as Hannah Worth, gets by nicely with a rural comedy role of the old-fashioned country aunt, and her vaudeville number between acts made a great hit with the audience, and called forth a tumult of applause. Gus Hogan, as Lord Vincent, played the part of the country squire in a satisfactory manner. Mr. H. Webb Chamberlain as Ishmael, is an actor of a fair order of merit. Gus Hogan, as Lord Vincent, played the part of the country squire in a satisfactory manner.

Miss Kitty Marks, as Beatrice Middleton, is an actress of marked talent and capability, and her work happily not too impressionistic or "accentuated." Miss Marie La Tour, as Claudia Merline, at times is remarkably good, and is fairly satisfactory throughout her role.

Special credit is due to little Miss Hazel Brown for her very natural acting in the part of the maid, and also for her delightful work in vaudeville. Mr. Frank Clayton, in his vaudeville number, makes you laugh at the old, old jokes and forgive him for making you. He is really very funny, and his tomato-can calypso is an interesting contrivance. The "Sweet Clover" company will present "Sweet Clover."

The Great Western Play, "Billy the Kid"

From a box-office standpoint "Billy the Kid" is the biggest melodramatic success of the last ten years. It tells a story of outlying forces upon the hero by his own father, but the story is consistent and the play ends happily for all concerned. Handsome scenery and an excellent supporting company are said to be a feature. The play will come to the Grand Opera House for one night only, Friday evening. Seat sale now open at popular prices.

"Rob Roy" With All-Star Cast.

James Stevens, erstwhile a prominent member of the Metropolitan Grand Opera Company of New York, will sing the title-role of "Rob Roy" at the Grand Opera House, matinee and night, Saturday. There is no doubt of the value of the success achieved by this artist in the De Koven Opera Company in Mr. De Koven's tuneful opera. He has headed the cast of male members from the outset, and has invariably given a conscientious and masterful performance of the role entrusted to his care. Mr. Stevens is beyond a doubt the leading baritone at present in light opera in America. He has a superb voice, a commanding presence, and a thorough knowledge of all that makes a successful player in this field. In "Rob Roy" he has a capital opportunity to display his best talents, and it is said of him that he never fails to take advantage of the chances bestowed upon him. Seat sale opens tomorrow at 9 a.m., and the management look for the largest advance sale in the history of the house.

Lecture by Dr. Colledge.

A great lecturer is coming to this city in connection with the Y. M. C. A. course on Saturday night, in the person of Dr. William A. Colledge, of Chicago, his subject being "Second Fiddles." Dr. Colledge was for three years with Henry M. Stanley in explorations in Darkest Africa. He is the editor-in-chief of the "New Standard Encyclopedia," and the first editor of the Technical World Magazine.

LEAVING BRUSSELS

Mr. and Mrs. Moore Were Highly Honored By Their Friends.

Brussels, Nov. 3.—Before M. H. Moore, V. S., and family removed to Listowel a social evening was enjoyed at the residence of Dr. J. J. Fox, when Mrs. Moore was presented with a handsome gold brooch and Mr. Moore was the recipient of a gold watch and chain.

The most appropriate reply was made by Mr. Moore. A number of short speeches were made, a program of vocal and instrumental music given, and lunch served before the company bade farewell to residents of 30 years' standing. Good-bye, "Doc" Moore was warmly known in this locality. He was a member of the school board, on the board of managers for the Presbyterian Church, and took a prominent part in the Y. M. C. A. Mr. Moore has purchased a veterinary practice in Listowel.

T. T. Moore, M. D., has purchased the Moore property here and has taken possession.

DEMAND REMOVAL OF JOHN R. VOORHEES

Supt. of Elections Charged With Failure to Probe Violations.

[Canadian Press.]

New York, Nov. 3.—The summary removal of John R. Voorhees, superintendent of elections, a Democrat, is asked in a letter addressed to Governor Glynn today by Francis W. Bird, chairman of the national progressive party of New York County; L. J. O'Reilly, chairman of the city campaign committee of the Independence League; and Clement J. Vriscoli, president of the voters' league.

The letter charges Voorhees with failure to investigate violations of the election law, with permitting his office to be used for partisan purposes, and with "general incompetency and inefficiency." It alleges that the superintendent failed to take action "on lists of fraudulent registration submitted the same names to be registered this year."
