CARTER & SON 351 GLEBE STREET.

It provides that there shall be additional penalties to those applying generally in the act for the sale of 'swamp" or other illegally-manufactured whiskey or for adulterated whiskey. This additional penalty will not be less than three months in

It also makes it an offence to false labels on any bottle or other package of liquor. The clause in the Ontario temperance act which pro-vides that a person "found drunk or disorderly" in a public place, may be imprisoned if it is the third offence within three months, is changed to read: "intoxicated," instead of

"drunk and disorderly."

The bill lessens the penalty for second offenders by providing that they shall be fined the same amount as for a first offence, and in addition shall be imprisoned for a minimum of two months instead of the former penalty of six months in jail. Awaits Royal Assent.

Any person employed in the er act will henceforth be liable to an who counsels or aids another to break Changes are made in the provision
