

C.N.R. Sextet Leads Field In Manufacturers' League Hockey Race

BELL TELEPHONE, C.N.R. AND M'CLARYS VICTORS

Twelve Hundred Fans See
Three Acts of Thrilling
Hockey.

ONE OVERTIME

MANUFACTURERS' STANDING.

	W.	F.	For Agst.
C. N. R.	2	0	6
D. S. Perrin	1	1	4
Belle Telephone	1	1	3
McClarys	1	1	3
Standard Drug	1	1	3
Civil Service	0	2	4

Nearly 1,200 fans saw three great battles in the Manufacturers' League last night. McClarys defeating Civil Service 4 to 1, Bell Telephone taking an unexpected fall out of Standard Drug with a 2 to 1 verdict, and C. N. R. in an overtime battle jolting the Perrin aspirations with a 3 to 1 count.

Good hockey stood out all over the three-act bill, and the new following the league is building up was rewarded with bang-up clashes. There were few dull moments and certainly less dull than there were in the opening bill a week ago.

After Ab Buchanan, McClarys defence man, went through the Civil Service front and back lines in the third period at the arena last night and slugged in the counter that broke the one-all tie, the McClarys clan cleaned up the job by riding in two more before the end came, making the count 4 to 1 for the Stewmen.

The first period went scoreless. Both goalies appeared to have large young horses parked under their sweaters, as time after time nearly every man on the ice was in apple pie shape to tally only to have the rubber sail too high, collide with an intervening hickory, or strike the posts and rebound.

Land Gets First.

Land ran in the first center of the night in the second, and Stephens evened it up a few seconds later on a pass from Auld after the latter had gone through everything and was taking around near the McClarys nets, figuring it out. The Bell Telephone was the nearest work of the night by far.

The line-ups: Civil Service—Goal, Watts; defence, Southcott and Barry; center, Stephens; wings, Auld and Lewis; subs, Chown and Bowman. McClarys—Goal, Reuter; defence, Buchanan and Kelly; center, R. McKay; wings, A. McKay and A. McKay; subs, Land and Wilson.

Bell Telephone looked as if they were getting all set for a nook in the cellar when Stephens broke out in the first period of the second clash, although being held scoreless themselves. Both Baker and Bryant handled some warmish drives, the former nipping them out of the air like a vanguard on occasion.

Bell Telephone showed better in the second period. Gowdy, a big, sturdy defence man, listed as a sub, was doing some of the best work, and rushing and looked like the find of the night. It was ding-dong until Dobie stumbled through alone for Standard's first and only center.

Standard Unlucky.

Milton was moved up to the wing to start the third, and with Gowdy combined in and out of a nook for Bell Telephone's evener. A few minutes after Dutch Logan's stick landed its way from the outskirts of the defence, through and for a goal. The player who used to perform on the juniors here, was an addition to the Standard and played a nice game, but Standard did not have much luck, although they had their full share of the play.

Charlebois, playing his second game of the day, was not only still going strong, but helped Referee Legg call them before there could be any doubt or the bell could sound.

Bell Telephone—Goal, Bryant; defence, Bettridge and Milton; center, Logan; wings, Gault, Milne; subs, Elwood and Gowdy.

Standard Drug—Goal, Baker; defence, Charlebois and Manning; forwards, Dobie, McMillan and Crittle, Connors, McLaughlin.

Wind-up Zestful.

The wind-up was zestful. It left C. N. R. out ahead of the field all alone. Opinion was fairly divided before the game, and for a while the play for three periods. Billed as the big tilt of the night, it was all of that. Hindmarsh at ten minutes put a notch in his stick with the opening goal of the encounter, the Hindmarsh-to-Burgess-to-Hindmarsh expedition doing the trick.

Four minutes later, McGeoch from a scrimmage drew the C. N. R. nets lifted one past Goodman, evening it up. Burgess and Gillies led the C. N. R. attack, with Monahan and McGeoch leading the tide of battle in the opposite direction.

The second was marked by hard checking. Hindmarsh was bottled up with his rushing, and there was no scoring, although the net minders were kept on the hop.

Pace Strenuous.

The third was a repetition with the checking and pace strenuous. Campbell drew two penalties in this period. Doolittle subbing for C. N. R., although a bit unsteady on his skates the first period, was a terror toward the last and fitted in nicely with Gillies and Burgess.

The game went into overtime, and with but a minute gone, Doolittle out of a scrimmage drove through a counter, breaking the tie. Pierce and Somers both drew penalties, and with four minutes of the second overtime gone, Hindmarsh went down alone and scored the railwaymen's third.

GOES TO STRATFORD.

Woodstock, Jan. 9.—W. R. Murray, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Murray, Delatre street, accountant at the Woodstock branch of the Bank of Montreal, has been transferred to the Stratford branch. W. E. Grothier of Little Current, Ontario, has arrived in the city to fill the vacancy.

Classic City To Have New Arena

Special to The Advertiser.
Stratford, Jan. 9.—Stratford is promised a new artificial arena for next season.

Today a group of influential citizens, headed by Dr. Lorne Robertson, completed arrangements to forward a request to Toronto for a charter to permit the erection of a modern hockey and skating arena to cost between $125,000 and $150,000.

The structure will be similar to that erected in Niagara Falls and will, it is estimated, accommodate 4,500 spectators.

It is expected that construction will commence early in the spring and that it will be completed by August.

PAN-DRIERS LOSE TO ST. THOMAS 4-3

Binns Break Tie, Wins Game
With Two Minutes
To Go.

BILLINGHURST GOOD

Special to The Advertiser.

Tillsonburg, Jan. 9.—Despite bad ice and heavy going St. Thomas O. H. A. intermediates broke away from the locals here tonight with two minutes to go in the final period and rang in the counter which broke a pass from Auld after the latter had gone through everything and was taking around near the McClarys nets, figuring it out. The Bell Telephone was the nearest work of the night by far.

The line-ups: Civil Service—Goal, Watts; defence, Southcott and Barry; center, Stephens; wings, Auld and Lewis; subs, Chown and Bowman. McClarys—Goal, Reuter; defence, Buchanan and Kelly; center, R. McKay; wings, A. McKay and A. McKay; subs, Land and Wilson.

Bell Telephone looked as if they were getting all set for a nook in the cellar when Stephens broke out in the first period of the second clash, although being held scoreless themselves. Both Baker and Bryant handled some warmish drives, the former nipping them out of the air like a vanguard on occasion.

Bell Telephone showed better in the second period. Gowdy, a big, sturdy defence man, listed as a sub, was doing some of the best work, and rushing and looked like the find of the night. It was ding-dong until Dobie stumbled through alone for Standard's first and only center.

Milton was moved up to the wing to start the third, and with Gowdy combined in and out of a nook for Bell Telephone's evener. A few minutes after Dutch Logan's stick landed its way from the outskirts of the defence, through and for a goal. The player who used to perform on the juniors here, was an addition to the Standard and played a nice game, but Standard did not have much luck, although they had their full share of the play.

Charlebois, playing his second game of the day, was not only still going strong, but helped Referee Legg call them before there could be any doubt or the bell could sound.

Bell Telephone—Goal, Bryant; defence, Bettridge and Milton; center, Logan; wings, Gault, Milne; subs, Elwood and Gowdy.

Standard Drug—Goal, Baker; defence, Charlebois and Manning; forwards, Dobie, McMillan and Crittle, Connors, McLaughlin.

The wind-up was zestful. It left C. N. R. out ahead of the field all alone. Opinion was fairly divided before the game, and for a while the play for three periods. Billed as the big tilt of the night, it was all of that. Hindmarsh at ten minutes put a notch in his stick with the opening goal of the encounter, the Hindmarsh-to-Burgess-to-Hindmarsh expedition doing the trick.

Four minutes later, McGeoch from a scrimmage drew the C. N. R. nets lifted one past Goodman, evening it up. Burgess and Gillies led the C. N. R. attack, with Monahan and McGeoch leading the tide of battle in the opposite direction.

The second was marked by hard checking. Hindmarsh was bottled up with his rushing, and there was no scoring, although the net minders were kept on the hop.

The third was a repetition with the checking and pace strenuous. Campbell drew two penalties in this period. Doolittle subbing for C. N. R., although a bit unsteady on his skates the first period, was a terror toward the last and fitted in nicely with Gillies and Burgess.

The game went into overtime, and with but a minute gone, Doolittle out of a scrimmage drove through a counter, breaking the tie. Pierce and Somers both drew penalties, and with four minutes of the second overtime gone, Hindmarsh went down alone and scored the railwaymen's third.

The line-ups: Civil Service—Goal, Watts; defence, Southcott and Barry; center, Stephens; wings, Auld and Lewis; subs, Chown and Bowman. McClarys—Goal, Reuter; defence, Buchanan and Kelly; center, R. McKay; wings, A. McKay and A. McKay; subs, Land and Wilson.

Bell Telephone looked as if they were getting all set for a nook in the cellar when Stephens broke out in the first period of the second clash, although being held scoreless themselves. Both Baker and Bryant handled some warmish drives, the former nipping them out of the air like a vanguard on occasion.

Bell Telephone showed better in the second period. Gowdy, a big, sturdy defence man, listed as a sub, was doing some of the best work, and rushing and looked like the find of the night. It was ding-dong until Dobie stumbled through alone for Standard's first and only center.

Milton was moved up to the wing to start the third, and with Gowdy combined in and out of a nook for Bell Telephone's evener. A few minutes after Dutch Logan's stick landed its way from the outskirts of the defence, through and for a goal. The player who used to perform on the juniors here, was an addition to the Standard and played a nice game, but Standard did not have much luck, although they had their full share of the play.

Charlebois, playing his second game of the day, was not only still going strong, but helped Referee Legg call them before there could be any doubt or the bell could sound.

Bell Telephone—Goal, Bryant; defence, Bettridge and Milton; center, Logan; wings, Gault, Milne; subs, Elwood and Gowdy.

Standard Drug—Goal, Baker; defence, Charlebois and Manning; forwards, Dobie, McMillan and Crittle, Connors, McLaughlin.

The wind-up was zestful. It left C. N. R. out ahead of the field all alone. Opinion was fairly divided before the game, and for a while the play for three periods. Billed as the big tilt of the night, it was all of that. Hindmarsh at ten minutes put a notch in his stick with the opening goal of the encounter, the Hindmarsh-to-Burgess-to-Hindmarsh expedition doing the trick.

HELPED GET FIRST.

Harold Grace made the pass which resulted in Western's first tally against Varsity here yesterday.

Poke and Cross Checks

Major Kidd, of Grimsby, has lodged a complaint with the O. H. A. over the rough play of Fraser, the Niagara Falls defence player. In the game at Niagara Falls last Saturday, the Grimsby players were badly battered up, and Kidd claims that Fraser was responsible for it all. McVicker, the Grimsby defence player, had his scalp badly cut, and Dr. Bill Carson was off for sixteen minutes undergoing repairs as a result of Fraser "laying on the hickory" in too strenuous a manner. Walsh and Harry Reid were also roughly handled, and the team has been unable to practice since. If the claims of Major Kidd are true, the O. H. A. should suspend Fraser for the balance of the season.

Sarnia: "History in recent years has been a steady string of losses for Sarnia's hockey team on the O. H. A. circuit, as certain as tax notices and Christmas Day, the blue and white have made the overland trip to the Scotcher village on the Wabash, and the best exhibition of defense and offense tactics that has been seen here this year.

It was a nip and tuck battle all through the twenty minutes, with little to choose between the two. Both were skating and stick handling phenomenally, but all such efforts seemed to strike an insurmountable wall when the defence line of the opposition. Penalties were heavier in this period.

It looked like an overtime session would be necessary until, with two minutes to go, Binns accounted for the deciding goal after fooling Barkey, who had gone into the local nets to replace Stilwell. Binns scored from a mix-up in front of the Tillsonburg nets.

The teams: St. Thomas—Goal, Billingham; defence, Cruteau and Graham; center, Donahue; wings, Evans and Binns; subs, Douglas and Phillips. Tillsonburg—Goal, Stilwell and Barkey; defence, Barrett and Thurston; center, Russell; wings, Pollard and Conn; subs, Carroll and Woodstock.

Referee—Sandercock, Woodstock.

Standard Drug—Goal, Baker; defence, Charlebois and Manning; forwards, Dobie, McMillan and Crittle, Connors, McLaughlin.

The wind-up was zestful. It left C. N. R. out ahead of the field all alone. Opinion was fairly divided before the game, and for a while the play for three periods. Billed as the big tilt of the night, it was all of that. Hindmarsh at ten minutes put a notch in his stick with the opening goal of the encounter, the Hindmarsh-to-Burgess-to-Hindmarsh expedition doing the trick.

Four minutes later, McGeoch from a scrimmage drew the C. N. R. nets lifted one past Goodman, evening it up. Burgess and Gillies led the C. N. R. attack, with Monahan and McGeoch leading the tide of battle in the opposite direction.

The second was marked by hard checking. Hindmarsh was bottled up with his rushing, and there was no scoring, although the net minders were kept on the hop.

The third was a repetition with the checking and pace strenuous. Campbell drew two penalties in this period. Doolittle subbing for C. N. R., although a bit unsteady on his skates the first period, was a terror toward the last and fitted in nicely with Gillies and Burgess.

The game went into overtime, and with but a minute gone, Doolittle out of a scrimmage drove through a counter, breaking the tie. Pierce and Somers both drew penalties, and with four minutes of the second overtime gone, Hindmarsh went down alone and scored the railwaymen's third.

The line-ups: Civil Service—Goal, Watts; defence, Southcott and Barry; center, Stephens; wings, Auld and Lewis; subs, Chown and Bowman. McClarys—Goal, Reuter; defence, Buchanan and Kelly; center, R. McKay; wings, A. McKay and A. McKay; subs, Land and Wilson.

Bell Telephone looked as if they were getting all set for a nook in the cellar when Stephens broke out in the first period of the second clash, although being held scoreless themselves. Both Baker and Bryant handled some warmish drives, the former nipping them out of the air like a vanguard on occasion.

Bell Telephone showed better in the second period. Gowdy, a big, sturdy defence man, listed as a sub, was doing some of the best work, and rushing and looked like the find of the night. It was ding-dong until Dobie stumbled through alone for Standard's first and only center.

Milton was moved up to the wing to start the third, and with Gowdy combined in and out of a nook for Bell Telephone's evener. A few minutes after Dutch Logan's stick landed its way from the outskirts of the defence, through and for a goal. The player who used to perform on the juniors here, was an addition to the Standard and played a nice game, but Standard did not have much luck, although they had their full share of the play.

Charlebois, playing his second game of the day, was not only still going strong, but helped Referee Legg call them before there could be any doubt or the bell could sound.

Bell Telephone—Goal, Bryant; defence, Bettridge and Milton; center, Logan; wings, Gault, Milne; subs, Elwood and Gowdy.

Standard Drug—Goal, Baker; defence, Charlebois and Manning; forwards, Dobie, McMillan and Crittle, Connors, McLaughlin.

The wind-up was zestful. It left C. N. R. out ahead of the field all alone. Opinion was fairly divided before the game, and for a while the play for three periods. Billed as the big tilt of the night, it was all of that. Hindmarsh at ten minutes put a notch in his stick with the opening goal of the encounter, the Hindmarsh-to-Burgess-to-Hindmarsh expedition doing the trick.

Four minutes later, McGeoch from a scrimmage drew the C. N. R. nets lifted one past Goodman, evening it up. Burgess and Gillies led the C. N. R. attack, with Monahan and McGeoch leading the tide of battle in the opposite direction.

The second was marked by hard checking. Hindmarsh was bottled up with his rushing, and there was no scoring, although the net minders were kept on the hop.

The third was a repetition with the checking and pace strenuous. Campbell drew two penalties in this period. Doolittle subbing for C. N. R., although a bit unsteady on his skates the first period, was a terror toward the last and fitted in nicely with Gillies and Burgess.

The game went into overtime, and with but a minute gone, Doolittle out of a scrimmage drove through a counter, breaking the tie. Pierce and Somers both drew penalties, and with four minutes of the second overtime gone, Hindmarsh went down alone and scored the railwaymen's third.

The line-ups: Civil Service—Goal, Watts; defence, Southcott and Barry; center, Stephens; wings, Auld and Lewis; subs, Chown and Bowman. McClarys—Goal, Reuter; defence, Buchanan and Kelly; center, R. McKay; wings, A. McKay and A. McKay; subs, Land and Wilson.

On the Side Lines

With C. S. G.

A MYSTERY.

Local hockey players and fans alike have remarked on the fact that in every game played here this winter so far the puck has been constantly hoop-rolling. It promises to assume as much local interest as the lively ball does in baseball.

Can it be the pucks? Nobody knows. Artificial ice has never been known to produce that effect elsewhere. Sporting goods dealers say the pucks are regulation; that they do not all come from the same box.

BATTLE OF THE AGES.

Junior hockey games often develop into the "Battle of the Ages."

EMPHASIZED AGAIN.

There were practically 60 hockey players performing at the arena last night. Three games that would pass in lots of places for O. H. A. intermediate hockey were played. London may have trouble in striking a tax-rate, but as far as hockey players go there is no trouble striking an average. If one sought diligently enough, there would be found reasons for practically every one of the 60 being given a chance on an O. H. A. team.

PITCHERS STILL HAVE CHANCE.

Bill Donovan used to say that in order for a batsman to obtain the full value from the lively ball he had to hit. Lively or not, the ball is the same size and shape it used to be and we doubt very much, if some of the old-time moundsmen were throwing it, whether there would be so many batters hitting over 300. Of course the lively ball is harder for an infielder to handle, but to make long line drives a man must meet the ball squarely. That it is a pitcher's business to prevent, and a pitcher with a good curve and control can worry a batter about as much as he ever could.

OBSERVATIONS.

Once a golfer has put forward his alibi he should stick to it. The rules say he shouldn't improve his lie. The easiest thing in the world to do is criticize the other man's game. When a man publicly states that he endows a woman with all his worldly goods he is not talking about his razor or his pet putter. There are more knockers in a large town, but in a small town they pull together.

Man always hopes that a new year may be what he thought the old one might be. The chief regret in the game of life is that certain shots cannot be played over.

INDOOR BASEBALL BILL UNDER WAY TONIGHT

Hussars Meet W. O. R. and Machine Gunners Clash With Battery.

W. O. R.'s meet 12 Hussars, and Machine Gunners will clash with 12th Field Battery in the second bill of the Garrison Indoor Baseball League tonight at the armories.

The indoor baseballers have found it hard to get going for some strange reason. Softball had a wonderful season during the past season, and the natural sequence would have seemed one of the best indoor seasons London has ever experienced.

However, this has been far from the case up to the present. Once, however, the league gets really started, probably the last time in starting will be made up.

Chances of more games with outside teams are brightening up. Three or four cities and towns, where the game is new, and the Classics are two, and Chatham, where very little hockey is played, is a third. This should inspire the local teams to action and points a way to probably a Western Ontario indoor baseball league being formed before many seasons have passed over.

GAMES TONIGHT. Senior O. H. A. St. Marys at Aura Lee. Intermediate O. H. A. Waterloo at Hagersville. Cayuga at Caledonia. Goderich at Seaforth. Junior O. H. A. Trenton at Pictou. Bowmanville at Whitby. Guelph at Stratford. London at Woodstock. Bradford at Newmarket.

DIRECT CONNECTIONS FOR FLORIDA. Exceptionally fine connection is made at Detroit for Florida points, including Jacksonville, St. Augustine, Palm Beach and Miami, from Canadian Pacific train 633, which leaves London daily at 7:15 p.m., connecting direct.

Canadian Pacific city ticket office, 417 Richmond street, will arrange through reservations. Jan. 8, 10 and 12.

OUR BOARDING HOUSE. "Shin" Harris, who has been recovering rapidly from his recent serious illness, will probably be able to make a bid for a place on the Glencoe team for the second half of the district schedule. Harris is one of the players developed in Sarnia under the Bear Cat regime in the Glencoe team. Art Davenport is anxious to have the Sarnia athlete in a green and white uniform.

A Montreal paper claims that the Hamilton players are "homers" owing to the fact that they defeated the Canadiens so decisively in Hamilton and then lost by just as big a margin in Montreal. But why not make the same claim for Canadiens?

AWARD JACK RENAULT DECISION AT MONTREAL. Canadian Press Despatch. Montreal, Jan. 9.—Jack Renault, heavyweight champion of Canada, was awarded the decision on points tonight over Joe White in the ten-round feature bout of the card, while only saved from a knockout in the seventh round by the bell, taking the count of seven.

Rosky Smith of Denver, Col., welterweight, knocked out Young Brady of Syracuse, N. Y., in the first round.

Ted Cossette, local lightweight, won the decision on points over Rosario Baril, former amateur lightweight champion of Quebec Province, who made his professional debut tonight.

PRESENTED WITH CLOCK. Paris, Jan. 9.—Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Thompson left on Tuesday for a trip through the Western States, going to Springfield, Missouri.

Mr. McGovern of Alberta is visiting his sister, Mrs. J. Sibbick. About a hundred friends gathered at the home of Mrs. M. Bonney and presented her son, L. Bonney, with a beautiful clock as a wedding gift.

The presentation was made by L. Loudon. Mr. Bonney replied suitably. Games and music were enjoyed.

GOES TO STRATFORD. Woodstock, Jan. 9.—W. R. Murray, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Murray, Delatre street, accountant at the Woodstock branch of the Bank of Montreal, has been transferred to the Stratford branch. W. E. Grothier of Little Current, Ontario, has arrived in the city to fill the vacancy.

The line-ups: Civil Service—Goal, Watts; defence, Southcott and Barry; center, Stephens; wings, Auld and Lewis; subs, Chown and Bowman. McClarys—Goal, Reuter; defence, Buchanan and Kelly; center, R. McKay; wings, A. McKay and A. McKay; subs, Land and Wilson.

Bell Telephone looked as if they were getting all set for a nook in the cellar when Stephens broke out in the first period of the second clash, although being held scoreless themselves. Both Baker and Bryant handled some warmish drives, the former nipping them out of the air like a vanguard on occasion.

Bell Telephone showed better in the second period. Gowdy, a big, sturdy defence man, listed as a sub, was doing some of the best work, and rushing and looked like the find of the night. It was ding-dong until Dobie stumbled through alone for Standard's first and only center.

Milton was moved up to the wing to start the third, and with Gowdy combined in and out of a nook for Bell Telephone's evener. A few minutes after Dutch Logan's stick landed its way from the outskirts of the defence, through and for a goal. The player who used to perform on the juniors here, was an addition to the Standard and played a nice game, but Standard did not have much luck, although they had their full share of the play.

Charlebois, playing his second game of the day, was not only still going strong, but helped Referee Legg call them before there could be any doubt or the bell could sound.

Bell Telephone—Goal, Bryant; defence, Bettridge and Milton; center, Logan; wings, Gault, Milne; subs, Elwood and Gowdy.

Standard Drug—Goal, Baker; defence, Charlebois and Manning; forwards, Dobie, McMillan and Crittle, Connors, McLaughlin.

SHOWS UP WELL.

Baldwin turned in a neat performance on Western's front line in yesterday's battle against Varsity.

TORONTO BOXER LOSES, GERMAN FANS ANGRY

Protest To Be Made Against Larry Gains' Fight Being Called Draw.

Associated Press Despatch. Paris, Jan. 9.—A message from Cologne, Germany, Rhineland, stated that in a boxing bout at the Crystal Palace, in that city, between Larry Gains, colored fighter of Toronto, and formerly amateur heavyweight champion of Canada, and Kompa Stein, heavyweight of Hamburg, Germany, the Canadian appeared to be a clear winner on points, but the judges gave a draw decision.

The decision was hissed by the large crowd, which showed its sympathy with the colored fighter in no uncertain manner. A number of prominent boxers, managers of boxers and newspaper writers who were present at the bout have framed a protest against the decision to the German boxing federation and have asked that those responsible for the award be disciplined by that organization.

COMEX CLUB DEFEATS YOUNG JUDEANS 36 TO 2

The Comex Club of Colborne St. Methodist Church defeated the Young Judeans 36 to 2 in a one-sided game at the Y.M.C.A. last night. It was the second tilt of the London and District Basketball Juvenile series. Murray and Logan were the stars for the winners, while Siskind secured the losers' only basket.

The teams: Young Judeans—Siskind, r.f. (2); Cohen, l.f.; Levy, center; Willensky, r.g.; Pink, l.g.; Hoffman and Cohen, subs.

Comex—Murray, r.f. (14); Ashton, l.f. (4); Logan, center (14); Allen, r.g.; Brown, l.g. (4); Henderson, sub.

The schedule for B section of the league is as follows:

Jan. 16—Owls (K) vs. Arrows. Jan. 18—Swastikas vs. Owls (C). Jan. 23—Owls (C) vs. Arrows. Jan. 25—Swastikas vs. Owls (K). Jan. 30—Arrows vs. Swastikas. Feb. 6—Arrows vs. Owls (K). Feb. 8—Owls (C) vs. Swastikas. Feb. 13—Arrows vs. Owls (C). Feb. 15—Owls (K) vs. Swastikas. Feb. 20—Swastikas vs. Arrows. Feb. 22—Owls (K) vs. Owls (C). The winners in the two sections will play off in a two-game series, the games to be played Feb. 25 and 28.

PORT DOVER TEAM HAS NOT WITHDRAWN FROM O. H. A.

Special to The Advertiser. Port Dover, Jan. 9.—For some reason the idea got abroad through this hockey district that Port Dover was to have no O. H. A. team this year. The only possible foundation for the rumor might be the fact that there was no ice in the arena in time for the first scheduled game. Port Dover intermediates are in the series to stay.

WESTERN JUNIORS WILL PLAY C. I. QUINTET TODAY

This afternoon at 4:30 Western "U" Juniors will meet the C. I. Q. 1st team in an exhibition basketball tilt. The proceeds will be devoted to