THE BRITISH COLONIST. EVERY MORNING. (Sundays Excepted) VIOLA. V. I.

Accept the principle upon a preliminary understanding, and to report that Napoleon has, for the king of the Belgians, drawn up a programme to lay before the different States and it will be perceived that no power will join such congress unless under the belief that they will not lose anything but that they may gain some distinct advantage... (Continued news and commentary) another smaller steamer in tow, was observed making for Victoria harbor. A report was raised that it was no other than the redoubtable Alabama, with a Federal gun-boat in tow as a prize and some little excitement was caused by the announcement. A fresh rumor having arisen that she had put into Esquimaux, added fuel to the flame, and several ardent "Seeschman" started down at once to greet the dreaded scourge of the Federal...
