e than materials

When you let us supply your building needs you get a great deal more than just so many feet of lumber—bundles of shingles—pounds of nails—or panels of Beaver Board. You get the benefit of our building material knowledge and experience in Service that helps you get the results you want at the right price. Service first in planning the work—more service in selecting proper materials—speedy service in delivering the goods. You pay for the materials. The service pays for itself in the larger volume of business it brings through super-satisfied customers.

ANTHRACITE COAL—1921

ose who are hoping for lower prices:

You are in the coal business. We be- we know conditions. We cannot predict future prices. We do think further reductions are likely, but mine wage agreements don't ex- until March 31, 1922. We can't much hope of general re- on in freight rates. The proposed Pennsylvania State on anthracite becomes a law, this mean an additional 16.50 or even 25 after next July 1st. Coal is far cheaper today than it will be next winter if you hold off buying! It is absolutely certain. You received the same advice in 1919 as who took it suffered no hardship sequence during the big bituminous strike. You are simply appealing to your com- sense.

GASPE HONORS HER HEROES

Gaspe Citizens Unveil Monument to Soldier Boys Who Fell Over There.

The War Memorial monument erected at Gaspe near Bakers Hotel, funds for which were raised by the ladies of that town and the surrounding district during the past two years, was unveiled recently with appropriate ceremony. Following services in the different churches in the morning, a march past of the officials accompanied by the Guard of Honor and the R.C.G.A. band from Quebec, a military inspection was made by Major General Sir David Watson. Major A. D. Valp then delivered an address of welcome which was followed by an address from the President of the War Memorial Committee, after which the monument was unveiled by Maj. Gen. Sir David Watson.

A panegyric to the fallen heroes of the district was made by Major (Rev.) J. W. Wayman and speeches were then delivered by the guests of the Committee, the Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux, M.P., and the Hon. Frank Carrel, M.L.C. for the Gulf District. When the monument had been officially presented to the town by the president of the War Memorial Committee last Post was sounded. The Royal Canadian Artillery Band then played a number of selections.

Accident To Train. Owing to a slight derailment of a freight engine and a flat car east of New Carlisle the Matapedia Express on the Coast Railway, carrying the R. C. G. A. band from Quebec to Gaspe for the unveiling of the War Memorial was held up until midnight. During the evening the band rendered a musical programme on the municipal square which was thoroughly enjoyed by the whole population. Refreshments were served to the members of the band and a public vote of thanks was proposed by Rev. Major Bookland.

The Hon. Frank Carrel in his speech to the people of Gaspe said: "Hon. Mr. Carrel Speaks."

"In being present with you to-day to do honor to those gallant lads of Gaspe, who made the supreme sacrifice in the late world war, my mind reverts to the patriotic spirit of the first settlers of this picturesque peninsula, those French and English pioneers, facing the hardships of colonization, and who not infrequently were called upon to defend their primitive homes and small clearings.

"There were no facilities of communication, to summon help. There were no means of retreat to cover excepting in the wilds of the primitive forests, from where they sometimes watched the complete destruction of their homes. Those hardy and courageous settlers did not know the meaning of danger, defeat or despair."

Great Traditions. "You the present generation of Gaspeans have descended from that little band of first settlers, reinforced with those united Empire Loyalists, who gave up their all to live under the flag of their choice. Side by side, you have grown up together, cultivating and developing this beautiful spot, perhaps the grandest of any part of the Dominion. Roads and railways have taken the place of the Indian paths and trails and telegraphic communication have brought you into touch with the outside world.

But the same undaunted courage and indomitable grit of those first settlers is evidence today in the present generation which has developed and retained the traditions and old time spirit of their forefathers. It was this spirit which was so self-assertive in the late war, and it is this spirit, that will yet prove to all Canada, that Gaspe is to be reckoned with, in the commercial, political and economic extension of this great Dominion of ours and of the Empire as a whole.

From Brave Stock. "From such a race was it any wonder that at the first call to arms, when Canada realized that the Empire was imperilled by a huge monster of murder, that the descendants of that stalwart band of early settlers responded in such large numbers, that no question was left in the minds of this country, that Gaspe did her duty, and did it well!"

"Was it any surprise that those brave lads who crossed the seas to fight in the defence of their homes and families, should be found in the thick of the shell-swept areas?"

"So we are here to-day to honor the memory of those brilliant soldiers of Gaspe, whose deeds of courage and heroism will live forever. 'Thou' lost to sight, to memory dear. Thou ever will remain."

Lauds Heroes' Mothers. "What more glorious end than that of giving one's life for such a cause? True! sorrow, sadness and desolation are left behind, in the homes of those boys who will never come back, but as life and years roll on we can picture the feeling of gratitude, and sense of pride, which must come over even the mothers of those boys, when they look out into the world and see it at peace."

Mr. Carrel concluded by saying: "May I add my small personal tribute to the good women of Gaspe and the surrounding district, who have raised this tablet to their dead heroes for the honor of being with you today. As your Legislative Councillor, I greatly appreciate the opportunity of joining with you in this historic event in the history of Gaspe."

EXHIBITION PLANS WELL UNDER WAY

Prospects Indicate Bigger and Better Show This Fall.

The work of putting the exhibition grounds in shape for the big September exposition is well under way and so much work was encountered that the crews have been increased. The cattle sheds are being enlarged, as a much larger live stock exhibit than last year is expected. H. A. Porter, manager of the exhibition, has lately returned from Ontario, and while at Waterloo was in touch with the Brown Swiss Cattle Association officials, who told him they had heard a great deal about the excellence of the accommodation for cattle at the St. John exhibition and intimated that they would send exhibits. If a final decision is made a special prize will be offered for this group. Prize lists for cattle, which are larger this year than last, show that more money is being devoted to cash prizes than to cups.

The main building space is rapidly filling up. A revision of allotments for space has been made. The number of refreshment booths has been cut down to make room for more industrial exhibits. The women's department will crowd out the tea room for which there will be no space in the eastern wing.

Owing to some disappointing results in connection with the amusement feature of last year's show, the management have been in direct communication with several feature firms, and have already engaged the services of a ballroom and a parachute jumper. The advertising policy has been greatly enlarged to interest the people outside the province. In this way, it is expected that many former New Brunswickers will return to their native province to attend the affair. Advertisements already are appearing in all the maritime papers, as well as in those farther afield. Excursion rates again are in effect on the railways for the first time since war days, and it is anticipated that this will aid in bringing much larger numbers of visitors from outside points.—St. John.

The numerous friends of the Honorable Charles Marcell, M. P., for Bonaventure, Que., and Administrator of the City of Montreal, will learn with pleasure that he has rebuilt his country residence at Carleton, which was destroyed by fire last July. The work was begun in the first days of May, under the personal supervision of Mrs. Marcell and has been completed. The residence is one of the finest on the Coast of Gaspe. Mr. Marcell and Miss Marcell are occupying it. Mr. Marcell hopes to be able to spend a few weeks there at the end of July and in August; in the meantime, owing to his seasonal duties at Ottawa and his municipal duties at Montreal he has only been able to pay flying visits.

Mr. and Mrs. John G. Ahern have gone for a motoring tour to New York and Atlantic City for a month, and will visit Carleton later in the season.

GASPE. Gaspe, July 12th. A very pretty marriage took place at St. Paul's church, Gaspe, yesterday, when Miss Olga Carter, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A.T. Carter, of Mount Pleasant, Gaspe, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Mr. Cyril Williams of Montreal. The bride was attired in white satin trimmed with pearls and wore a beautiful veil, looking up the aisle leaning on the arm of her father, and carried a beautiful bouquet of white roses. She was attended by her sister, who was beamingly gowned in pale green organdie, with a black picture hat trimmed with pink roses, and also carried a bouquet of white roses. The groom was accompanied by the bride's brother Mr. K. J. Carter. After the ceremony many prominent guests followed the bridal party to the beautiful home of Mr. Carter where a reception was held. The entrance of the house being hardly accessible for the number of automobiles there congregated. Among the guests were Rev. J.W. Wayman, Dr. and Mrs. McCartney, Mrs. J.A.D. Annett, Mr. and Mrs. J.J. Annett, Miss Carpenter, Mr. and Mrs. Valois, Mr. P.G. Hyman, Miss M.H. Annett, Mr. H.S. Lounde, and many others.

The music at the church and house was ably rendered by Miss M.H. Annett. The happy couple left for Montreal where they will take up their abode, stopping at way places enroute.

SUMMER PERILS. The summer season has its own particular dangers which have to be guarded against by those who would preserve life and limb. Take the automobile. There have been many cases of reckless driving. Some of the cases involved life and limb. Our lake rivers, and ponds also have their perils. The newspapers are carrying stories of drownings. Some drowning accidents seem unavoidable, but the great majority are unnecessary and represent a needless loss of life. Year after year the treacherous canoe takes toll although every one knows that an amateur who ventures out in one flirting with death. Now and then some one defies the ordinary rule goes swimming when overheated immediately after a meal, is stricken with cramps and pays the price with his life. The individual who can swim but who nevertheless takes chances on the water helps to swell drowning totals. And so one might go on with the catalogue of mistakes that lead to fatal results; mistakes which would not be made if only people were thoughtful. There isn't much excuse for a man or woman not being able to swim. Parents should make it a point to teach their children the art. Oftentimes the ability to take a few strokes means the difference between a tragedy and an incident. The dangers
