David Gardiner, while under the influence of liquor, would have succeeded in taking the life of Jas. Hamilton, hotel-keeper, 58 Adelaide street east, had it not for the timely intervention of one of the Cobourg firemen. Hamilton refused Gardiner whiskey. At this the latter be-came incensed and made two attempts on the former's life, once with a fork and the other time with a dagger. Gardiner is still

The Indian child, Melissa Mabel Rosamond Jamieson. is still a subject of centen-tion between the paternal grandparents and the mother. The parties live in the county of Brant, and the mother says that the council of the Six Nations has given her the custody of the child, while the grandparents allege that their son, the papoose's father, relegated his right to them. Meanwhile the mother has the child, and the grandparents are applying to the courts to get pessession of her. An order was made by Justice Osler yesterday for a warrant to apprehend the mother for disobedience to the writ of habeas corpus ordering the child to be brought up to Toronto.

The Scene at Ischia The Roman News says of the scene of the schia earthquake : "Imagine 5the prettist spot on earth, endowed with every gift of nature, to which all modern comforts have been added, turned into the most hide-ous and appalling wreck." The same paper says that the work of rescuing those who buried under the ruins was taken up in a fairly earnest way; "but it is undoubt bat had assistance been sent at once, and such as the extent of the disaster required a great many who perished under the weight of the blocks of stone, brick and mortar, or were sufficiated by the mineral vapors, would have been saved." W. D. Howells, the novelist, who has been on a tour of the continent recently, visited England, when he was described by Truth as a rather young-looking man, of middle height, with a decidedly American type of countenance. He wears his hair, which is parted in the centre, cropped short, and brushed over his forehead a la young Augustus. His face is clean shaven, with the exception of a short, grey move-tache, and altogether his aspect is not that

Under PERSONAL direction of Dr. Williams, the Proprietor.

All diseases of the respiratory organs treated by the most improved Medicated Inhalations, combined with proper constitutional remedies for the liver, st mach and blood, &c.

Over 40,000 cases successfully treated during the past eighteen years for some form of head, throat or ung troubles. SPECIAL NOTICE.

On Saturday, Sept. 1, we expect to occupy our new premises, Nos 274, 276 and 278 Jarvis street, corner Gerrard street, where we will be able to accommodate from 50 to 100 patients in the Institute, and administer the various baths, such as hot and cold water baths, shower baths, cletric baths, and the famous medicated baths. We were compelled to make this move on account of our present quarters being far too small for ou rapidly-increasing business. The great value of inhalation in the treatment of all head, throat and lung complaints has been endorsed by all the leading medical journals of England, France and Germany. Those who desire to consult me in regard to their cases had better call at the office for an examination, but if impossible to visit the office personally may write for "List of Questio's" and circular, both of which will be sent free of charge.
