A recent Minneapolis dispatch says.—A matinee was given in the music festival with the Thomas Orchestra, Maroena, Scaria, Emma, Juch, Miss Winants and a chorus of 500 children. There were 2,600 persons present, When in the midst of the programe the flag staff of the building was struck by lightning, the bolt breaking the glass in the skylight and following down until it struck the electric light wires whence it passed off into the ground. What the Premier's object may have been it somewhat difficult to surmise. If he meant to frighten the people injo accepting the better terms which the House has rejected he put up rather a poor scarecrow. The people know perfectly well that the rejection of the terms will necessitate taxation for provincial purposes unless the Government chooses to make us a better offer. But it will be time enough to previde for the collection of provincial revenue when we know that we are to be thrown up n our own resources.
