

“ Law, as if he had committed it against his fellow
 “ Planter : And if any Indian shall abuse, in Word “ or Deed, any Planter. of this Province, that he “ shall not be his own Judge upon the Indian, but “ he shall make his Complaint to the Governor. of “ the Province, or his Lieutenant or Deputy, or “ some inferior Magistrate near him, who shall to “ the utmost of his Power, take Care with the “ KING of the said Indian, that all reasonable Sa“ tisfaction be made to the said injured Planter.

“ That all Differences between the Planters and
 “ the Natives, shall also be ended by Twelve Men,
 “ that is, by Six Planters and Six Natives, that so
 “ we may live friendly together, as much as in us
 “ lieth, preventing all Occasions of Heart-burnings
 “ and Mischief.”

A Conduct regulated by such Principles of Love and Justice, could not fail to influence this discerning People, and bias them in Favour of the ENGLISH ; a Continuance of the like Conduct must attach them inviolably : And the present worthy Governor and Council seem so sensible of the Necessity of cultivating a good Understanding with the Six Nations, as to be likely to omit no Opportunity of brightening the Chain, or increasing the Fire of Friendship with them.

The Confidence which these Nations repose in their Interpreter, is a Proof of his Industry, good Sense, and Address : Nothing could have happened more favourably to the English Settlements, than that those delicate Affairs should be in the Hands of a Person equally just and a Friend to both.

The FRENCH are perpetually labouring to debauch their Faith to the ENGLISH : Their Emissaries, the Priests, an indefatigable, artful, insinuating Race,
