

CONTENTS.

vii

CHAPTER XIX.

*Adventures with the Peigans—Crusoe does good service as a discoverer—The savages outwitted—The rescue.....*229

CHAPTER XX.

*New plans—Our travellers join the fur-traders, and see many strange things—A curious fight—A narrow escape, and a prisoner taken.....*241

CHAPTER XXI.

*Wolves attack the horses, and Cameron circumvents the wolves—A bear-hunt, in which Henri shines conspicuous—Joe and the "Natter-list"—An alarm—A surprise and a capture.....*263

CHAPTER XXII.

*Charlie's adventures with savages and bears—Trapping life.....*277

CHAPTER XXIII.

*Savage sports—Living cataracts—An alarm—Indians and their doings—The stampede—Charlie again.....*284

CHAPTER XXIV.

*Plans and prospects—Dick becomes home-sick, and Henri metaphysical—The Indians attack the camp—A blow-up.....*300

CHAPTER XXV.

*Dangers of the prairie—Our travellers attacked by Indians, and delivered in a remarkable manner.....*312

CHAPTER XXVI.

*Anxious fears followed by a joyful surprise—Safe home at last, and happy hearts.....*322

CHAPTER XXVII.

*Rejoicings—The feast at the block-house—Grumps and Crusoe come out strong—The closing scene.....*331