

Index to the First Volume.

- |  |  |
|--|--|
| tented with his condition, 148. Inward         | Description of particular places in it, 221,     |
| man how to be preserved, 148, 149              | 223  |
| Mandar kingdom, 231                            | Ministers, 109                                   |
| Mandarines in China, 14, 19. Their di-         | Miraculous victory, 661                          |
| versions, 61. Their retirement, 63. Their      | Miserable life of sailors, 445                   |
| state, ibid.                                   | Misery and slavery of the Cypriots, 441          |
| Mandao a lone castle in India, 705             | Missioners in China, 66, 67, 70, 72, 321.        |
| Mandao city, and scarcity of water thence, 721 | restored, 298                                    |
| Mani his office, 629                           | Missioners in Congo, 630                         |
| Manila city, 214. F. Navarette's stay there,   | Missioners arrive at Sogno, 650                  |
| and description of it, 215                     | Modesty, 339. Of Chinese women, 10. Of           |
| Manila bay, 311                                | the Chinese men, 15, 31                          |
| Manila island, 314                             | Mogul, 284. His court, 699. His reve-            |
| Manner of speaking in China, 161. Of           | nue, his pleasure-house, 703. He presents        |
| fishing in Congo, 652                          | his picture to Sir Tho. Roc, 704. His            |
| Manuring of land in China, 56, 57              | birth-day solemnity, he makes merry on that      |
| Many Blacks baptised, 623                      | day, 706. He and all his lords drunk,            |
| Maps in China, 51                              | ibid. Designs to pardon Chan Channa,             |
| Marivelez island, 311                          | 707. His eldest son a virtuous prince;           |
| Market of man's flesh, 663                     | his mistaken policy, 708. His sitting in         |
| Maron lake, 427                                | the Jarucco, his wives, fifty elephants to       |
| Marriage ceremonies of Chineses, 66            | carry his women, ceremony at his sitting         |
| Marriages in India, 285                        | out, his dress and attendants, 713. His          |
| Marseilles, 588                                | eldest son taken out of prison, his camp         |
| Martial exercise, 632                          | a glorious fight, ibid. His camp described,      |
| Mascarenhas island, 288                        | his charity, 714. His courtesy, 716. His         |
| Masters of houses present the Mogul as he      | conceit concerning a picture, 720. His           |
| passes by them, 723                            | kind expressions, 721. His jealousy, mean        |
| Meals in China, 342                            | curiosity in him, 722. The ceremony of           |
| Meats the several sorts, in China, 59          | weighing him, ibid. His goodness to the          |
| Medicinal vegetables, 635                      | English merchants, 723. He and the               |
| Medicine in fevers, ibid.                      | prince fond of red wine, 728. Is seen            |
| Meekness of an emperor, 103                    | thrice a day, his policy, 729. His vil-          |
| Meeting of many missioners, 249                | lanous dissimulation; like Herod he would        |
| Melida island, 450                             | see miracles, 731. His temper and his            |
| Merchants in China, 55                         | courts, 732. His exceptions against the          |
| Merleras two islands, 450                      | English embassy, 733                             |
| Mermaid, 610                                   | Monastery of forty saints, 404. Of S. Ca-        |
| Merolla's voyage to Congo, he sets out, stays  | tharine, 405                                     |
| at Corsica, 595. Departs, lands at Villa       | Monkeys, 317                                     |
| Franca, continues his voyage to Lisbon,        | Monks of several sorts, 417, 418                 |
| 569. Accepts an offer, 597. Sails for Bra-     | Monsters in the sea of Greenland, 497            |
| fil, ibid. Arrives in America, lands at        | Monsters in Congo, 605, 610                      |
| Brazil, 598. Prosecutes his voyage, 602.       | Monstrous birth, 648                             |
| Arrives at Angola, and departs thence          | Monstrous serpent, 685                           |
| on his mission, 608. Runs up the great         | Moors honesty, 272                               |
| river, his reception by a count, and ap-       | Morals of Confucius, 112. Of China, 133          |
| plication to business, 611. Goes to court,     | Morea, or Peloponnesus described, 388.           |
| 612. His sickness and recovery, 613. He        | Again, 446                                       |
| sets out, 649. His journey to Congo, 651       | More memorable matters of Sogno, 638             |
| Comes to Congo, 657. His farther jour-         | Moses's salt well, 401                           |
| ney, 665. Returns to Sogno, 667. His           | Mosque on mount Horeb, 403                       |
| return to Europe, 781                          | Mosque upon a double cave, 412                   |
| Metals in China, 32                            | Moss tree its fruits, 435                        |
| Metamorphosis in Arabia, 436                   | Mourning in China, 72                            |
| Metapano promontory, 447                       | Mulattoes, 671                                   |
| Mevet kingdom in India, 735                    | Multan kingdom in India, 735                     |
| Mighty inundation, 704                         | Murcia city in Spain, 586                        |
| Miles in China, 5                              | Murders, 439                                     |
| Military officers in China, 14                 | Musical instrument in Congo, 563                 |
| Military discipline in China, 308              | Musick in Sogno, 631                             |
| Mills at Rhodes, 443                           | Musulapatan described, 285. Accidents there, 286 |
| Mindoro island, the woods in it, 216. De-      | Mycenæ, 446                                      |
| scription of it, 219. The natives, 220.        | Naked  |