All neatly bound in extra English cloth, black and gold.

This book is well bound in fancy cloth, embossed with gold leaf; a handsome volume for the centre table. It is embellished with twenty-seven half-page illustrations, and has a frontispiece of the renowned poet, its author. This edition retails at three dollars per copy, but by special arrangement we are able to offer it, with the HEALTH MONTHLY for one year, at the remarkably low price of one dollar, and the cost of postage, which is twenty-five cents on each copy, and as we cannot afford to make up for any losses in the mail, we suggest that every one who orders this premium send ten cents extra for registering the package to them. It is too good a thing to lose, and those who want it should send in their orders at once, as we cannot promise to leave the offer open for an indefinite period. Remember to send twenty-five cents extra for postage if you order Shakespeare, or thirty-five cents extra if you want it sent by registered mail.
