MR. CHAS. W. GREVING, the well-known dealer and publisher of New York "Stamp" has removed his business to Morristown, N.J.

"PRINTER'S INK" recently published an article on "The Philatelic Press" written by Mr. C. E. Severn. A good many advertisers will use the advertising columns of stamp papers with good returns to themselves.

RATHER an odd newspaper clipping appears in "Era," Nov. 23, signed "FAULT FINDER." In it dealers are condemned as the cause of new issues, "errors" watermarks, subcharges, and in fact all the evils (in the writer's mind) of stamp collecting.
 It is amusing and will certainly strike most readers that way. Stamp selling is a business and collectors buy from a dealer because it is to their benefit. Like other businesses the dealer has to be wide awake and buy all he can, almost no matter, whence it comes—if he don't he goes to the wall. If "Fault Finder" don't want what he condemns, let him stop buying, but also he must consider the prices United States, Canada and the other issues WOULD NOW BRING were it not for these issues of which he complains.

AMONG advertisers this month will be seen the firm of W. Elliot Woodward Co., of Boston, Mass., who wish to present to every reader of this paper, gratis, a catalogue of a coming auction sale of stamps.
 The sale will be unique from the number of rarities both in Canada, provinces, and the United States. No reader should neglect to send for this catalogue, when they see it they will want to buy.

THE Nebraska Philatelic Blue Book is
