Sermon

Preached by the Rev. Professor Allnatt, D. D., of Bishop's College, Lennoxville, at the Ordination of Priests in S. Peter's Sherbrooke, on Sunday, June 7th, 1896.

Let a man so account of us as of the Ministers of Christ, and Stewards of the mysteries of God.—1 Cor. IV. 1.

And Jesus took the loaves; and when He had given thanks He distributed to the disciples, and the disciples to them that were set down.—St. John VI. II.

The first of these passages introduces the conclusion of that section of the Epistle in which St. Paul reproves the Corinthians for their divided state of feeling in relation to those whom they regarded as leaders of religious thought,—some being for Paul, some for Apollos, some for Cephas.
