Donald Kennedy, Roxbury Mass.

Dear Sir: I took your Medical Discovery for one year for Scrofula on my knee. When I began I was told by the Doctors my limb would have to be amputated, but it cured me. Well, that was 13 years ago and no signs of it since. I thought you and the world ought to know it.

Yours very truly,
MRS. M. D. DALTON,
Aug. 8, 1891. Edina, Mo.

The SURPRISE Way.

READ the directions on the wrapper.

1st. Commence by dipping one of the articles to be washed in a tub of luke-warm water. Draw it out and rub on the "SURPRISE" lightly, not missing any soiled pieces. Then roll in a tight roll, put back in the tub under the water and let it stay there half an hour. Do all the wash this way.

2d. After soaking for this time, rub lightly on the wash-board; the dirt will drop out.

3d. Then wash lightly through a luke-warm rinse water, which will take out the suds.

4th. Next rinse through a blue water. (Use scarcely any bluing. SURPRISE takes the place of bluing). Wring them; hang up to dry without boiling or scalding or any more rubbing.

The wash will come out sweet, clean, white.

CEYLON TEA COMPANY

WHAT "THE TIMES" OF CEYLON Says of this Company, May 4th, 1889.

"We are asked by a Correspondent, 'Which Company, for the sale of Ceylon Tea at home, does the largest business?' and we really do not think that anybody can answer this question. In all probability, the Ceylon Tea Growers, Limited (Khañgani Brand), sell more Tea than most, seeing that they have no less than one thousand Agents in Great Britain alone, and, in the course of twelve months, must sell a very large quantity of Tea."

This is indisputable evidence that this Company is a GENUINE CEYLON TEA COMPANY.

A TRUSTY GUIDE FOR THE FAMILY
An illustrated book of nearly 800 pages, treating Physiology, Hygiene, Marriage, Medical Practice, etc. Describing all known diseases and ailments, and giving plain prescriptions for their cure, with proper directions for home treatment.

The RECIPES are endorsed by eminent physicians and the medical press. Remedies are always given in a pleasant form, and the reasons for their use. It describes the best Washes, Liniments, Salves, Plasters, Infusions, Pills, Injections, Sprays, Syrups, Tonics, etc. These are valuable to the physician and nurse, making it a manual for reference.

The chapter upon POISONS is exhaustive, and every poison appears in the index, so that the antidote can be readily and, if need be, hurriedly found.

18 pages upon MARRIAGE treat the subject historically, philosophically and physiologically. It should be read by everybody.

67 pages upon HYGIENE, or the Preservation of Health; a chapter of inestimable value. "Everybody wishes to be healthy, and everybody, when they think of it at any rate, wishes to avoid such things as might bring disease and suffering."

80 pages are devoted to PHYSIOLOGY, giving an accurate and extensive description of the wonderful and mysterious working of the machinery within ourselves, correcting many popular errors, and marking vividly the stumbling blocks where most people, innocently or carelessly, begin to lose health. Truths are stated which to many will be surprising.

Sparkles.

"WOULD you rather go to the mountains or the sea?" enquired Mrs. Summer-Rover of her husband. "Well, in some respects, my dear," he replied, "I prefer the sea; but when one is in the mountains there's always something in sight to compare the hotel bill with."

"I WAS induced to use your Burdock Blood Bitters for constipation and general debility and found it a complete cure which I take pleasure in recommending to all who may be thus afflicted."—JAMES M. CARSON, Banff, N.-W.T.

MR. HOPPIN: Aurora! Have you been run over? Your dress is all in tatters. Mrs. Hoppin: Doesn't matter, dear—I was only down to Stacy's "bargain sale" to-day. Just wait till you see what I got—the loveliest edging! Wouldn't have missed it for the world.

"I have great faith in Burdock Blood Bitters as a blood purifier. I have taken three bottles for bad blood and find it a perfect cure. It is a grand medicine and I recommend it wherever I go."—IDA SANDERSON, Toronto, Ont.

TENTH Street housewife (to her help): I wonder where the leaf of that extension table has disappeared to? Help (with a beam of satisfaction at her superior knowledge): Now, wasn't it too bad, mum? The fire went out and it went for kindling. What else could I do?

HENRY G. JAMES, of Winnipeg, Manitoba, writes: "For several years I was troubled with pimples and irritations of the skin. After other remedies failed I used four bottles of Burdock Blood Bitters and since then I have been quite free from my complaint. B. B. B. will always occupy a place in my house."

SHE: You seem to have become wonderfully interested in that book, Mr. Staylong. He: I am. I should like to borrow it some time. She: Certainly. You can take it home with you right now if you like.

"IN our family faithful work has been done by Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry as a sure and quick cure for diarrhoea, dysentery and all summer complaints. I can recommend it to all as a family friend, always true and faithful."—MRS. W. BISHOP, Vivian, Ont.

HUNKER: This rain-inducing business is a new thing entirely, I believe. Bloombumper: Nonsense! I could always bring on a smart shower by going out without an umbrella and with my boots nicely blacked.

MRS. GEORGE RENDLE, of Galt, Ontario, writes: "I can recommend Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry for it is a sure cure for all summer complaints. We are never without it in the house." Fowler's Wild Strawberry, Price 35c.

"MAMIE," said papa, "won't you have a little piece of this chicken?" "No, thank you," said Mamie. "What! no chicken?" "Oh, yes. I'll have chicken, but I don't want any little piece."

"My brother had severe summer complaint about a year ago and no remedies seemed to relieve him. At last my aunt advised us to try Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry and before he had taken one bottle he was entirely cured."—ADELAIDE CRITTENDEN, Baldwin, Ont.

"BUT, doctor," remarked the patient, "you told me to avoid all great emotion or excitement." "Just so. It's dangerous; might be fatal." "Then why did you present your bill yesterday?"
