

GENERAL NOTES:—Continued.

	PAGE
Misdirected energy.....	175
Moral and intellectual injury.....	287
Nervous shock.....	144
Novel action of damages.....	336
Oarsmen in the Court of Appeal.....	175
Odgers, Q. C., Mr.....	239
Peculiar head notes.....	303
Peers in the Court of Appeal.....	361
Photographs as evidence.....	80
Photography in the detection of crime.....	80
Police powers.....	272
Political antecedents of judges.....	111
Population in France.....	239
Privileges of the police.....	31
Privileges of witnesses in England.....	31
Proxies on a show of hands.....	16
Publications of the Selden Society.....	174
Quaker, The, and his hat.....	303
Qualified privilege.....	48
Question of costs in England.....	79
Railway punctuality.....	367
Reading law.....	287
Roentgen ray pictures as evidence.....	240
Robbery of a judge.....	172
Russell, Mr. Charles, Appointment of.....	32
Salaries of U. S. judges.....	237
Secret commissions.....	32
Sending marked copies to a judge.....	96
Serjeants' Rings.....	78
Session papers 200 years ago.....	304
Sharp criticism, A.....	144
Solicitor and client.....	335
Sunday observance.....	256
Theft of electricity.....	237
Time limit for speeches.....	190
Trade unions.....	192
Trustee in a difficulty.....	79
Truth.....	80
Unknown offenders.....	256
"Unloaded" guns.....	174
Vacation work.....	288
Varnishing criminals.....	64
Venerable precedents.....	144
Will, The oldest.....	236
Written instructions to juries.....	175