

Inshavogue.

We clip from last Saturday's Daily Record the following very interesting account of an entertainment given in the Town Hall, Waterloo, for the benefit of the Orphan's Home, St. Agatha:

The Literary and Dramatic Society of St. Jerome's College, Berlin, Ont., made their first bow to a Waterloo audience last Thursday night, when they produced that capital comedy-drama, "Inshavogue." The hall was crowded to the doors many having to stand throughout the entire performance, and it is quite within bounds to state that not one of those who attended was disappointed, but all were delightfully surprised at the artistic manner in which the play was presented. Mr. Francis C. Neisens, the Inshavogue, is a born actor, combining wit, pathos and tragedy, and the round of applause which greeted him was only what he deserved. The character of Herri-k Wolfe and Lord Desmond were also cleverly taken. But they all did well, and should they ever again decide to appear behind the footlights in Waterloo they may rely upon receiving a hearty welcome, and, what is more substantial, a crowded house. The performance closed with a laughable farce, "Irish Justice." And the orchestra! The lively strains of music so sweetly played by the college orchestra, under the leadership of Prof. F. Mayrhofer, helped materially to whittle away the otherwise rather long lapse of time between the acts. Boys, we heartily congratulate you upon the success of your evening's performance.

UNEQUALLED—Mr. Thos. Brunt, Tyendinaga, Ont., writes:—"I have to thank you for recommending Dr. THOMAS' ELECTRIC OIL for bleeding piles. I was troubled with them for nearly fifteen years, and tried almost everything I could hear or think of. Some of them would give me temporary relief but none would effect a cure. I have now been free from the distressing complaint for nearly eighteen months. I hope you will continue to recommend it."

LIVE STOCK MARKETS.

TORONTO, May 9.—There was a good local enquiry for butchers cattle, and prices for the best ranged from 37 to 44c per pound.

MILKERS AND SPRINGERS.—We had a very small supply here, as scarcely a dozen were to hand; there was an unusually good demand and prices were from $4 to $5 a head better; all grades were in request.

SHEEP AND LAMBS.—The sheep, yearling, and spring lambs did not total up above $0, and with this small run quotations were firm. Sheep were sold at from $5 to $7.50 each, one bunch of 43 sold at $6.75 each. Yearlings were wanted and firm at the figures of last Friday. Spring lambs were not in active demand, but sold at from $4 to $5.75 each; one bunch of four sold for $5.25 each.

CALVES.—About 150 came in, but there were very few really good calves among them; a bunch of 55 sold at $5.75. Choice calves will sell well.

HOGS.—The run was comparatively light to-day, and did not exceed 360. For fed and watered hogs the outside price was $6.50, off cars $6.75 was stated to have been paid, other grades were unchanged. All kinds are wanted.
